No official weather report for the weekend, but it rained and turned colder.

Iran's Parliament debated the fate of the 52 American hostages in secret session Sunday, but put off a final decision on conditions for their release for at least one more day.

Former President Gerald Ford was in Asheville campaigning for Bill Hendon for Congress.

Five Soviet-made missiles smashed into the garrison city of Dezful in southern Iran on Sunday, killing as many as 100 people, Iran said. It was the second reported Iraqi missile attack in the 35-day Persian Gulf war.

For a scenic route South, we recommend going Hwy. 11 to the South Carolina Welcome Center on I-85. It is a delightful drive and you travel at the foothills of the mountains much of the way. We used it this past weekend in visiting our grandson, Adam Vining and his parents in Gainesville, Ga.

The Presidential debate between Carter and Reagan is tonight at 9:30 p.m.

Some 16,000 runners entered the New York City Marathon. Alberto Salazar, a 22-year-old
