Price 10c Per Cop;

Weather Tuesday: high 52, low 40. It is beginning to feel like fall. Wednesday was sunny, but on the cool side.

Principal Alan Peoples of the Mill Spring Elementary School is staging an energy conference tonight at 7:30 at the school and has invited some experts in the field of energy conservation to show how to save money. Two crew chiefs from the Isothermal Housing and Development Commission Flynn Walters and Kirby Gant will demonstrate how to insulate the hot water heater, doors and windows. Hubert Sterling of Hatch Mill will be present to help you figure the actual cost of energy in your home and place of business. By "feeding" certain variables into the Milliken "energy computer" you can discover where you are losing energy money on an annual basis.

Tuesday afternoon 38 people attended the Planning Board hearing at the Town Hall on the proposal of A. M. Stone to have 60 town house units on 8.5 acres in Stone's Throw subdivision. The Planning Board listened to comments from those in attendance and concern was expressed due to the large
