WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3, 1980

Price 10c Per Cop;

No official weather report for Monday, but it was a beautiful day as was Tuesday. For those who keep the official rainfall. The amount last Thursday at 7 a.m. was .9 instead of .09.

George Rogers, the University of South Carolina's All-America running back, is the winner of the 1980 Heisman Trophy, as the outstanding football player in America. He became the first athlete who played college football in South Carolina, North Carolina or Virginia to win the award. He will receive the award at a black tie dinner on Dec. 11th at the New York Hilton Hotel.

A drought warning urging 22 million people in four states to begin conserving water was issued Monday by the Delaware River Basin Commission because dwindling supplies have left reservoirs only one-third filled.

The states involved are Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and New York.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. the Tryon Little Theater play, "The Philadelphia Story" is at the Fine Arts Center.

New Chairman

Ralph Arledge

The old Board of the County Commissioners met at 7:30 in the courthouse. They accepted a bid by Boyce Carson of $487.50 for the old truck and approved the minutes of the 14 November meeting. Then Billy Hugh Ruff asked to be excused. With reference to Isothermal Community College's request for lighting in the front parking and a new entrance, it was decided to have the lighting but to use the front entrance of the Meeting Place; this would cost $3160. total, from the contingency fund. The Health Department's request for $2475 for the landfill dozer cab was granted.

Judy Arledge, Clerk of court, swore in Phyllis Crain, Willie Arledge, and Fred Earle Foster as Polk County School Board.

Ernest Gibbs swore in Opal Sauve and Paul Butler as County Commissioner members, and Doris Scoggins as Registrar of Deeds. During a half-hour recess, coffee, punch and cookies were
