Weather Tuesday: high 66, low 36. Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning was windy.

Federal regulators can enforce clean water standards for an entire industry without considering whether cost of compliance will force some companies out of business, the Supreme Court said Tuesday. Under Tuesday's ruling, a company that cannot afford to meet its industry Clean Water Act standard established for 1977 must halt production.

Major banks nationwide raised their prime lending rates to 18.5 percent Tuesday.

The Postal Service Board on Tuesday approved spending $316 million on new mail sorting equipment that is the first phase of an automated system expected to include a nine-digit Zip Code. Postmaster General Wm. F. Bolger said the equipment would save money even if the nine-digit code proves a failure after it is introduced next year.

Sen. Howard Baker of Tennessee was elected Tuesday to lead the new Republican majority in the Senate.
