One Book Of The Bible

Approximately once each month, the Vicar of Good Shepherd Episcopal Church, Rev. Ralph Bonacker, will use the sermon time to discuss one book of the Bible. The purpose of this series is to help everyone to know and understand Holy Scripture—and to read it with greater comprehension.

This Sunday at 9:30 a.m., will be the first "Book-of-the-Month Sunday" at Good Shepherd, with Matthew, the first of the Gospels in the New Testament under consideration. Emphasis will be placed on the unique qualities of this Gospel, its purposes and its message.

Good Shepherd has also made its plans for a Christmas Service of Holy Communion at 10 p.m. on Christmas Eve. All are welcome.

Speaks Today At Tryon High

Roger Hathaway of the NASA Community Involvement Program will be the featured speaker at the 9:30 Assembly at Tryon High School, Friday, December 5.

The National Aeronautic and Space Administration (NASA) is currently presenting their Community Involvement Programs in the area schools and civic groups. The purpose of the program is to interpret the works and findings of NASA. Exhibits of Lunar samples and enlarged photos from the latest Voyager I and II Space Missions will be on display.

Hathaway is a Research Associate from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in Blacksburg, Virginia. He is presently assigned to NASA Langley Research Center's Office of Education and Community Service.

Born in Edenton, North Carolina, Mr. Hathaway received his Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Arts Education in 1972 from Elizabeth City State University. In 1977, Mr. Hathaway received his Masters of Education in Industrial Arts degree from Virginia State College in Petersburg, Virginia.

Prior to joining NASA, he taught industrial arts in the Schools as well as serving as a member of several committees

Weather Wednesday: high 61, low 33. Thursday morning was cold, but warmed up as the day progressed.

The Senate gave final approval Wednesday to an amendment that would prohibit the government from asking courts to bus children out of their own neighborhoods to desegregate public schools and was sent to President Carter on a voice vote. The president has been urged by his attorney general to veto the bill. The amendment is tacked on to an appropriations bill.

Six companies pleaded guilty Wednesday in federal court to bid-rigging charges involving North Carolina road paving contracts and were ordered to pay more than $1.5 million in fines. Officers of several of the companies also were sentenced to active prison terms.

A federal jury in New York found lame-duck Reps. Frank Thompson, Jr. D-N. J. and John M. Murphy, D-N. Y., guilty last Wednesday of numerous charges in the FBI's undercover Abscam case. Both were found guilty of conspiring to defraud the U. S. government by agreeing to accept bribes in return for promising to help fictitious Arab
