Two Fires

The Columbus Volunteer Firemen have been called out twice in this cold weather. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. they were called to Oman's Nursery on Fox Mtn. Road where a sawdust shavings pile caught on fire. No damage was done.

Monday at 10 a.m. they were called to the John Gibbs residence on Blanton St. where there was a chimney fire. The fire caused some soot to fall down the chimney which blocked the smoke. Since the smoke couldn't get out the chimney, it came out the flues into the house causing considerable smoke damage. The firemen climbed up on the roof and using a chain cleared the chimney of the soot so the smoke could get out the chimney.

A New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moore (Ann Hendricks) of Martinsville, Va. are parents of a son, Martin Elliott born Dec 31st. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. M. "Mac" Hendrick of Elkin. The Hendricks made their home in Tryon for a number of years when Mr. Hendrick was with Hatch Mill.

Mrs. Naomi Young and son, Scott, have returned to Saron, Mass. and daughter, Miss Kyndra Young to Spelman College in Atlanta, Ga after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Berry and Mrs. Lois Young, all of Tryon.

Buy Homesite

Dr. and Mrs. Archie Ellis of Columbia, S. C. have bought a building site on Vintage Road in the Many Levels Subdivision in the Hunting Country. Bob Mueller of Dean Butler Realty and Robert Thompson of Town and Country-Knoblock handled the transaction.

They plan to build a home and move here when it is finished. Dr. Ellis retires June 25th as Assistant Director of Federal Grant Services in the office of the S. C. Auditor. Prior to this he was the Director of the Social Services for South Carolina.

Mrs. Ellis is the former Lois Avant of Tryon. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Avant. [Her father came here in 1910 from Charlotte to install the first electric power plant (near where Carolina Yarns is located). He stayed on to make Tryon his home. He bought the Polk County Telephone Co. and opened Avant Electric Co. He was a charter member of the Tryon Kiwanis Club.] She is a graduate of Tryon High School and Meredith College.

Dr. Ellis is a former pastor at the Landrum First Baptist Church. He went to Salisbury and while there became president of the North Carolina Baptist Convention. He later went to Columbia where he served as pastor until he resigned to become Director of the South Carolina Social Services. He is listed in Who's Who in America.
