Mrs. R. Lockridge

Mrs. Richard Lockridge

Mrs. Hildegard Dolson Lockridge, 72, of Tryon died Thursday at 1:15 p.m. after a brief illness.

A native of Franklin, Pennsylvania, she was a daughter of the late Clifford Brink and Katharine Brown Dolson.

Mrs. Lockridge was a writer and used her maiden name, Hildgarde Dolson for many years. She had done a large number of novels, and non-fiction including "We Shook The Family Tree", "The Husband Who Ran Away", "The Form Divine", "Heat Lightning", and "To Spite Her Face". She had also written magazine articles for The New Yorker, Good Housekeeping, Ladies Home Journal, Readers' Digest and even an article, "I'd Make A Terrible Wife" for McCall Magazine. This was written just before she met and
