Weather Tuesday: high 50, low 35, rain at 7 a.m. Wednesday was .20. Schools to the west of us were closed due to snow. We had rain, but not enough to get the woods soaked.

Ronald Reagan Became President of the United States Tuesday, promising "an era of national renewal" at home and restraint but never surrender abroad.

As Jimmy Carter gave up the presidency, Iran yielded the captives it had held for 444 days. The celebration of Reagan, the parade, pageantry, etc. became a celebration of their freedom, too.

Former President Carter returned home to Plains, Ga. Tuesday to cheering friends and neighbors.

The redistribution of the Tryon ABC Store profits to increase the Harmon Field portion from 10% to 30% seems a good way to give Harmon Field some more money and not increase the special Tryon Township tax for its support. Harmon Field is a credit to this area and is used for many activities by people from a wide area. The Harmon Field Commission has asked the Town of Tryon to have a special bill introduced in the Legislature

T.C.C. Annual Meeting Jan. 27

The Tryon Country Club annual dinner meeting will be held for members and associate members at the Hearthstone Inn, Tuesday, January 27th.

Brief reports of the Club's progress and tournament award winners for the year will be presented. Three new Board Members will be elected to replace retiring President Bob Gibbs, Financial Chairman Larry Pexton, and House Chairman Bob Creswell. Following a short business meeting after dinner, a film covering the 1980 Masters Tournament will be shown.

A social hour to get acquainted with new members will start at 6:00 p.m., with dinner being served at 7:00 p.m. Brown bagging is the custom with set-ups and ice being provided.

Late reservations will be accepted by calling Paula Joyce at 859-5216.

Carolina Cloggers Rescheduled

The Carolina Cloggers from Canton were unable to appear in Columbus on Tuesday evening due to icy weather conditions in the mountains. Weather permitting, they will be at Stearns School Tuesday, Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m. to give clogging lessons. Call the Polk County Community Schools Office for information: 894-3905.

A Need For Foster Parents

There is a great need in Polk County for foster parents who are interested in working with young people, ages 13-18. Both emergency and regular foster homes are needed.

All interested persons may call the Polk County Department of Social Services, Monday, through Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Executive Committee Of WNCHSA Meets

The Executive Committee of the Western North Carolina Health Systems Agency will meet on Thursday, January 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the Asheville Mall's S & W Cafeteria in Asheville, North Carolina.

Executive Committee members will also review the Agency's Application for Renewal of Full Designation for the funding year, May 1, 1981 — April 30, 1982 before its submission to the Governor and DHHS regional offices. The WNCHSA has been fully designed since 1976.

The WNCHSA, with offices in Morganton, is responsible for health planning in 26 western N. Carolina counties in order to increase the accessibility and acceptability of local health care services and retard medical cost increases by preventing duplication and waste.

All meetings are open to the public and interested persons are invited to attend.
