Weather Wednesday: high 47, low 37. Thursday was sunny and warmer.

Former President Jimmy Carter held an emotional meeting with the 52 Americans held hostage by Iran for 14½ months and then denounced the Iranian government's "despicable act of savagery." He added, "Our Americans in Iran were mistreated much worse than previously revealed."

Colene Story Wright, 19, of Rutherford County, pleaded guilty Tuesday to second degree murder in connection with the death of William Burnette of Sunny View in Polk County Superior Court. The state agreed to reduce the charge from first degree murder to second degree and in turn she would receive a life sentence. The robbery charge against her, committed during the murder will be dropped under the agreement.

An employee of the N. C. Department of Transportation has been suspended in connection with a bid-rigging scandal among road-paving contractors in North Carolina. J. Preston Allen, 49, head of the Proposals and Contracts section of the Division

An Interview With Our Visiting Nurse

By Mrs. Harold White

I believe that you would like to become better acquainted with our Visiting Nurse, Mrs. David Neilson, who has been assisted by Mrs. Robert Whitmire for the past year. I caught her in her office for a personal interview.

Her answers to my questions will give a better idea as to her background, training, activities and attitude toward her work.

Where did you get your nurse's training? Jackson Memorial School of Nursing, Miami, Florida.

What jobs did you hold before becoming our Visiting Nurse? Head Nurse, Good Samaritan Hospital, West Palm Beach, Florida; School Nurse — Day School, West Palm Beach, Florida; Staff Nurse, Saluda Nursing Center and St. Luke's Hospital.

Why did you decide to be a
