Weather Monday: high 43, low 31. Tuesday was sunny, but cold.

Education Secretary T. H. Bell on Monday scrapped the Carter administration's controversial bilingual education proposals that would have required the nation's schools to teach youngsters in their native language. He said the rules proposed by his predecessor, Shirley M. Hufstедler were "harsh, inflexible, burdensome, unworkable and incredibly costly."

Speed skater Eric Heiden, who set five Olympic records while winning five gold medals in the 1980 Winter Olympics, received the U. S. Amateur Athletic Union's prestigious Sullivan Award Monday night as the nation's outstanding amateur athlete.

In a surprise move, directors of Cannon Mills turned down a $375 million takeover proposal Monday by a group of investors headed by retired ITT Chairman Harold Geneen.

Despite a splash of rain in the Northeast and winter's first major snowstorm in the Midwest, the nation remains firmly in the embrace of an unusual weather pattern that has caused a coast-

The following Tryon students are also available to speak about their experiences this summer in foreign countries: Eileen Teal, (Costa Rica), Sherry Horne (Brazil), Kelly Sheehan (Colombia). For further information contact Jean Pettigrew (859-9453) or June Brady (859-9573).

Good News

We often hear from some of our readers that they miss their papers, etc. so it is good news when we hear of good mail services. Paul R. Duffy of Alexandria, Va. wrote: Check enclosed, please renew. I have received all my papers. Often I receive Monday's paper on Monday. Excellent publication. We enjoy it very much. It's our "home away from home." (Needless to say it made our day. —SV)

TCC BRIDGE

The Tryon Country Club Women's monthly Bridge will be Tuesday, Feb. 10 at 1:00 p.m. at the Club House. Hostesses will be Zandria Reilley, Martha Baird and Susie House.
