

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 2, BOX 11
COLUMBUS, N. C.

28722

11 NOV 81

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

12 Pages Today

Vol. 54 — No. 4

TRYON, N. C. 28782

THURSDAY, FEB. 5, 1981

Price 10c Per Cop.

Weather Tuesday: high 37, low 14. Wednesday was sunny and cold.

Gov. Lamar Alexander apologized to Japanese officials for what he called a vocal minority of Tennesseans who jeered and booed Tuesday during ground-breaking ceremonies for a $300 million Datsun pickup truck plant at Smyrna, Tenn. The 3 million square foot Nissan Motor Co. Ltd. plant will produce 120,000 pickups a year by 1983.

Raymond J. Donovan was approved as labor secretary by the Senate Tuesday, overcoming unverified allegations of ties to organized crime.

Basketball fans watched No. 1 Virginia defeat No. 10 UNC 80-79 in overtime Tuesday night at Chapel Hill.

John Uptegrove reports that he has seen robins several times, so maybe spring isn't too far away.

The Tri-County Softball League meets tonight at 7:30 at the Tryon City Hall.

The Civic League of Landrum will meet Friday at 3 p.m. at the Civic Center.

The second annual Heart Fund Benefit Dinner is a week from tonight at Garrison Chapel Baptist church with the first

Continued On Back Page

A New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pruitt of Landrum are parents of a son, William Curtis, born January 29th at Mary Black Hospital in Spartanburg. He has a sister, Jessica Leigh, age 2½.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Isom R. Pruitt of Landrum and the maternal grandmother is Mrs. Leroy Fisher, also of Landrum.

4-H Funfest March 14th

The 4-H Funfest will be held March 14th at the Tryon Fine Arts Center. All schools have been encouraged to have a show or audition. Each school will select five of their top acts to be screened at the 4-H Semi-Finals on March 2nd at 6 p.m. at the 4-H Center in Columbus. Those acts selected at the semi-final screening will perform at the Funfest on March 14th.

For those schools not having a talent contest or auditions and for those Polk County students attending school outside of Polk County there will be provided an Open Audition at the 4-H Center on Monday, March 2nd at 5:30 p.m.

Complete guidelines may be obtained at your school.

Basketball

Thursday
Cherokee High (Gaffney) at
Tryon

Friday
Rosman at Polk Central
Landrum at Tamassees-Salem

Regular Visiting Hours At Hospital

Normal Visiting Hours are now in effect at St. Luke's Hospital. A spokesman said, "We thank the community for cooperating in the restricted visiting program during the flu epidemic period."
— Hospital Reporter

On Dean's List

HICKORY — Brian Street Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman A. Davis of Green Creek, has been named to the Lenoir-Rhyne College dean's list. A Lenoir-Rhyne student must compile at least a 3.4 academic average of a possible 4.0 and must carry a course load of at least 14 semester hours. He also must make no grade lower than a "C"

"A Fuzzy Tale"

"A Fuzzy Tale," a short Home and Family Service cartoon, will be shown Saturday afternoon, February 7, at 5 in the Tryon Seventh-day Adventist Church. The public is invited.

The movie is a parable about "warm fuzzies," which are acts of positive attention and recognition. This is a film for the entire family — lighthearted, but with a good message, according to program chairman Betty Cross.

A discussion period will follow the film.

Mrs. Liechty Elected President

At the annual meeting of Church Women United, held on Jan. 30th, in the Parish Hall of St. John's Church, Mrs. Howard Liechty (Helen) was elected President for the coming year.

Mrs. Liechty is a relative newcomer to the Tryon area, but she is not new to Church Women United; her work with the organization extends back to the days when it was known as United Church Women. At that time, Mrs. Liechty was a minister's wife sharing Christian concerns with other women. In planning World Day of Prayer, an event which pre-dated the organization and in which she had long been interested, Mrs. Liechty became involved in the UCW at the local level, then the state level, and finally at the national level. She served on the Committee for Christian Social Relations and one of its responsibilities is May Fellowship Day, another important celebration of CWU.

Mrs. Liechty lived in several northeastern communities and through the United Church Women worked on numerous projects — the integration movement, migrant workers, Meal on Wheels, and a Get Well Cupboard (where sick room equipment could be borrowed). She has been active in the YWCA and in the American Field Service program and worked on the N. J. Preparations for the

Continued On Back Page