Weather Tuesday: high 47, low 30, rain at 7 a.m. Wednesday was 2.32 inches. We didn't hear anyone complain about the rain. It had been a long time between rains.

The biggest storm of the winter swept from the Rockies to the eastern Great Lakes bringing blinding snow and bone-chilling cold.

North Carolina labor leader Wilbur Hobby and two associates were indicted by a federal grand jury Tuesday in Raleigh on charges of fraud in the handling of federal job-training funds. Indicted with Hobby were Robert L. Hughes, Jr., 37, special projects coordinator for the state's Natural Resources and Community Development and Mort Levi, 49, former program director for Precision Graphics, Inc., a Raleigh printing company operated by Hobby.

President Reagan, trying to win support for deep cuts in social spending, has decided to leave untouched the basic retirement program of the Social Security System, medicare payments, school lunch and breakfast program, supplemental Security Income benefits for persons who are
