Price 10c Per Cop.

No official weather report for Tuesday, but it was a beautiful spring-like day. Wednesday was another beautiful February day.

The Polk Central girls and Tryon boys won their first round games in the District Playoffs and play tonight at Tuscola. Both schools play Edneyville. The Polk Central girls play at 6:30 and the boys at 8:30.

The Tryon Little Theater production, "The Moon Is Blue" opens tonight at 8:30 at the Fine Arts Center. It will also be given Friday and Saturday nights at 8:30, but tickets are getting scarce for Friday and Saturday.

Tonight at 7 o'clock the Tryon Town Council is holding a hearing on the redistribution of the Tryon ABC Store profits, so that Harmon Field will get more.

Mrs. Della H. Jackson has written a booklet "Special Approaches For Sunday School In Small Churches." Mrs. Jackson is District Superintendent of Church Schools for Winston-Salem-Greenville District of the C.M.E. Churches. She retired from teaching in 1969 after 42 years, but has never been idle. She founded the Stony Knoll Library and started two child development centers and has

Beginning Guitar

A class in Beginning Guitar is being offered by Isothermal Community College. The 11 week course will start Thursday, March 12 at Stearns School in Columbus, and will be held each Thursday evening from 6:30-9:30 p.m. Tuition is $9.75 for N. C. residents and $49.50 for out-of-state residents. There will be a $2.50 fee for a book. Call 859-5868 for an application.

The course will be taught by Glenn Dedmond, local guitarist and folksinger. Subjects covered will be tuning, strumming, various rhythms, note reading and melody playing. An introduction to various guitar styles will include blues, folk, bluegrass and classical. A course for the absolute beginner.

Students will be expected to furnish their own guitar.
