Weather Tuesday: high 84, low 43, at 7 a.m. Wednesday .01 rain. The weather is perfect. Azaleas are beginning to bloom and the red buds are already brightening up the landscape. In some of the warmer spots the dogwoods are starting to show white.

During March there was 4.19 inches of precipitation. The average for March is 6.66 inches. To date the precipitation has been 10.20 inches and the average to date is 17.55 inches, leaving us 7.35 inches short of our average rainfall.

President Reagan rebounded Tuesday from gunshot surgery as he signed a major economic bill and otherwise resumed command of the Republic from his hospital room.

Members of the Tryon Kiwanis Club are picking up trash today along Hwy. 108 from McFarland's Funeral Chapel to the Lynn Body Shop and along Harmon Field Road as their contribution to beautifying the area in getting ready for the Steeplechase weekend. After they finish they will have hot dogs and hamburgers at Bob Mueller's house.

Rosie Thompson At The Upstairs

On Sun., April 5, at 2:15 p.m. The Upstairs will present a slide show and discussion by Rosie Thompson, a well-known artist from Hillsborough, N. C. Ms. Thompson is associated with the Center/Gallery in Chapel Hill and her work is currently on exhibit at the Conference of Mayors Building in Washington, D. C. The slide presentation on Sunday will center around her work, her ideas, and the philosophy from which they spring. This event will mark the opening of the Rosie Thompson exhibit at The Upstairs entitled "Inerts And Cocoons" which will consist of soft sculptural pieces and concepts.

The public is invited to this show, no admission will be charged. The Upstairs is located at 117 So. Trade St. in Tryon, N. C.

To Represent Thermal Belt B & P Women's Club

Wanda J. Starling, alternate candidate for Young Careerist, will represent the Thermal Belt Business and Professional Women's Club at the district meeting of the Western North Carolina BPW Clubs on Sunday, April 5 in Franklin.

Mrs. Starling is a nurse in the Progressive Cardiac Unit at Spartanburg General Hospital. She is also a full-time student at the University of South Carolina in Spartanburg where she is working on a degree in nursing and on pre-med requirements. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Jennings of Landrum.

The Winner of the district will compete for State Young Career Women later this year.

Landrum Lions To Meet Early

The Landrum Lions Club will meet Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Landrum Civic Center. After a quick meeting they will adjourn to the Landrum City Hall for a public meeting at which advocates of several cable TV systems will try to convince the City Council which system should be licensed locally.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brock and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Brock have returned from visiting Miss June Brock in Kansas City, Mo. They returned Robert Brock to Avila College after spring break.
