Police Car Totaled

A Landrum city police car was involved in a three-vehicle accident early Sunday near Inman.

Policeman Raymond Buteau was traveling north on Highway 176 when the accident occurred, according to Highway Patrolman George Oliver. He said a Chevrolet pulled onto the highway in front of the patrol car and was struck from behind. While Buteau was radioing for assistance, a Ford station wagon hit his patrol car from the rear, Oliver said.

No one was seriously injured in the accident. Oliver said no charges will be made. The police car was totaled, according to Landrum police Chief Neal Ayers. — Spartanburg Herald
