"The Big Boom" rocked parts of the Carolinas Wednesday, leaving aviation and geological officials wondering what the noise was and where it came from.

Thursday's Spartanburg Herald had an article about Leroy Prince of Landrum being reunited with his daughter, Judy Prindle of Kingston, N. Y. after 39 years.

The Tryon Little Theater will

Richard Jackson To Be Honored

The Board of Deacons of the Tryon Congregational Church of Christ has designated a reception and luncheon Sunday, June 28th to honor the Rev. Richard L.
Jackson on the 40th anniversary of his ordination into the Christian ministry (June 29, 1941). He and Dorothy were married shortly before that so this is a double celebration for them.

Mr. Jackson's first assignment, beginning July 1, 1941, was in Waverly, Va., where he served as pastor of three rural churches. In 1946, after a period of study of the Chinese culture and language at Yale University Graduate School, the Jacksons went as missionaries to Shaowu, in Fukien province, South China.
The last year and half of their
