Retired Friday

Mrs. Faye Lynch

Friday was the last day in the Postal Service for Mrs. Faye Lynch. Mrs. Lynch retired after 36 years, 11 months and 10 days and received a certificate of Service Award from Mill Spring Postmaster John Lynch. Mrs. Lynch said she had met a lot of good people and enjoyed her work. She served 8 years as a borrowed clerk at the Tryon Post Office and seven months as borrowed clerk at the Hendersonville Post Office. The rest of her postal service was at the Mill Spring Post Office.

Mrs. Lynch, whose husband, The Rev. George W. Lynch, is pastor of the Big Level Baptist Church, is looking forward to doing some knitting, crocheting and other things that she hasn't had time to do.

The Mill Spring Post Office employees and their spouses treated Mr. and Mrs. Lynch to a steak supper Friday night.
