Weather Thursday: high 82, low 63, rain at 7 a. m. Friday was 1.26 inches. A much needed rain has caused the shrubs and grass to come alive.

The N. C. Senate Finance Committee Thursday voted to send all bills that would increase local sales taxes to a subcommittee for further study, effectively putting off the issue for at least one year. The committee also voted to study, rather than approve, proposed increases in alcohol taxes that would have added a penny to the cost of a can of beer, and hiked liquor taxes one-third.

The U. S. Supreme Court ruled Thursday that former President Jimmy Carter had the power to reach the agreement with Iran that freed 52 American hostages in January.

The U. S. Justice Department and the University of North Carolina formally signed an agreement Thursday designed to bring more white students to the UNC system's five black campuses and to end an 11-year desegregation dispute.

Southern Bell notified the N. C. State Utilities Commission Thursday that it intends to file for a general rate increase in
