Weather Wednesday: high 90, low 76, humidity .61 at 6 p.m. There was a cool breeze blowing Thursday morning, but a warn day was promised by the weatherman.

The N. C. General Assembly has enacted a new congressional-district alignment that divided Moore County between the 6th and 8th districts, marking the first time in the state's history that a county has been split into more than one congressional district. Avery County was dropped from the 11th district which otherwise remains the same. None of the 11 districts under the new plan, varies in population by more than 2.7 percent from any other district.

The Reagan administration on Wednesday dropped two antitrust suits filed by its predecessor after acknowledging that it has created "a more favorable atmosphere for mergers" of big business.

Rioters in Belfast, Northern Ireland attacked British troops and police with firebombs, bullets and grenades Wednesday after the death of the fifth Irish nationalist hunger striker in two months.
