Communication

Congratulations to the Upstairs Players for their delightful and innovative presentation of Midsummer Night's Dream, which they gave in four different localities in this area. I saw it in the Tryon Fine Arts Center's Farwell Garden and a lovely backdrop of trees, mountains, and evening sky would be hard to find. I'm sure Shakespeare himself would have approved of the rollicking production, enjoyed and applauded it as did the enthusiastic audience. Kudos to the cast and director, John Gulley.
