Weather Wednesday: high 61, low 42. Thursday was warm and sunny. We didn't get the rain that was predicted for us.

Gene Parks has recently returned from South Texas and brought back a bunch of grapefruit. He said it got its name because it grew in bunches like grapes. This particular bunch has nice grapefruit. Somehow we have always thought they grew individually like an apple, orange, peach, etc. The bunch of grapefruit is in the Bulletin office, take a look at it.

By a voice vote the U.S. Senate passed House Congressional Resolution 290, echoing last week's action in the House. This resolution reaffirms the, "full faith and credit" of the United States behind deposits in federally insured financial institutions up to the $100,000 insurance limit. This covers commercial banks and savings & loan institutions.

The Spartanburg Herald recently had an article on Holmberg Electronics Corporation and its recent 24,000 square feet plant expansion at its plant at Inman. Officers and executives of the company shown
