Jaycees To Help With Beautification

The Polk County Jaycees Tuesday evening, voted to establish with the Polk County Community Foundation the "Tryon Downtown Beautification Project" to provide for the maintenance and landscaping of the John W. Cowan Memorial Garden and adjoining areas along the Trade Street area. During the past years, the Polk County Jaycees have been assisting the Town Central Business District Committee in the planting of azaleas and general landscaping along Trade Street. The Jaycees have been dedicated to being involved in community projects such as the Town Central Business District Committee's downtown beautification project.

It is the hope of the Polk County Jaycees through this initial and further, annual contribution commitment of $50.00, that other civic clubs and individuals will participate in keeping the Town of Tryon the number 1 town for beautification in North Carolina.
