

Future Takes New Position

It is said that any successful announced that they have one. Future Williams, 24, is now a new and used car salesman for the dealer. "He comes to us with the best experience in new and used car sales," Grady Adams, owner, said.

Future is married to the former Belinda Brown and they have a girl, Tomeka, five. Future invites all of his friends to come down to Adams Volvo at 226 N. Marshall Street for a good deal.

Board Elected

Samuel O. Jones, Chairman of the Board of the Winston-Salem State University Foundation Inc., announced the election of five new board members. The new members, elected during the Board's October meeting, are Max-H. Crohn Jr. - Assoc. Counsel - RJR Industries, Inc.; Dr. Clara Barnes Jenkins - Prof. of Education - St. Paul College in Lawrenceville, Virginia; Mrs. Ruth B. Lewis - retired principal and former supervisor - Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System (currently working with the Development Office at WSSU); Winslow A. Lowery - teacher - Danville, Virginia Public School System; and Ms. Louise Smith - teacher - Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System.

You may be paying a $1 penalty each month on your checking account.

Not if your bank is Wachovia.

The $1 penalty.

Your bank may be imposing a $1 penalty when your checking account drops below a $100 minimum. And that's in addition to your regular per-check service charge. It could cost you an extra $12 per year. The easiest way to find out if this penalty is affecting you is to look at your latest checking statement, or call your bank. It may have already cost you $1.

No penalties at Wachovia.

You can have free checking if you maintain a $100 minimum balance, or use Wachovia's Ready Reserve Account to maintain your minimum balance. If however, you do not take advantage of these options the per-check charge is only 13¢. That's a nominal charge to cover the cost of the transaction, not a penalty.

All day banking.

Most Wachovia offices are open all day, 9 to 5 Monday thru Thursday, and 9 to 6 on Friday. And because we have 174 offices in 70 cities all across North Carolina, there's always a Wachovia office nearby.

Talk to a Wachovia Personal Banker.

He or she will have all of the information on Wachovia's no penalty checking. And, they can also help you with any other financial questions that you may have. Wachovia serves more North Carolinians than any other bank. So, if you're not banking at Wachovia, shouldn't you be?

You have a Personal Banker at Wachovia.

To Wachovia Bank & Trust Company, N.A.
Post Office Box 3099
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27102

NAME _____
ADDRESS _____
ZIP _____

PLEASE SEND ME SIGNATURE CARDS AND APPLICATIONS FOR

Checking	Simple Interest Loans
Savings	Master Charge

Please have a Personal Banker call me at _____

Rams-42, Broncos-24

Rams Slaughter Fayetteville State

Saturday night at Bowman Gray Stadium the Winston-Salem Rams put it all together ripping the Fayetteville State Broncos 41-24. The Rams' offense did everything Coach Cleo Wallace asked of them as they amassed 464 yards total offense.

On the Rams first possession of the ballgame, after the defense stopped the Bronco's on a fake field goal attempt, Franco Goode, the Rams starting quarterback, rammed the ball into Big John Connally's stomach. The big fullback, who was playing with a broken nose, plunged through a big hole opened by an inspired offensive line and romped 68 yards to the Bronco's 11 yard line before being dragged down.

Chico Dunlap, the Rams other setback, carried to the 4 yard line on the next play. Connally then carried the Bronco defensive line into the end zone on his back for the score. Jerome McDaniel added the point-after to give the Rams a 7-0 lead with less than 4 minutes gone in the first period.

The Broncos came back to score following the kick-off. They moved to the Rams 5 yard line where the defense stiffened and John Highsmith made good on a 21 yard field goal cutting the Ram lead to 7-3 midway through the first quarter.

The Rams, after being penalized on the insuing kick-off, took the ball on their own 12 yard line. Dunlap and Connally, running behind the best blocking they had received all year, moved the ball to midfield on four plays; each carrying the ball two times. On one play the official blew the whistle after the entire Bronco defense failed to down Connally.

The mighty Rams will take on Elizabeth City Saturday in Elizabeth City. The Rams hope to spoil the Vikings homecoming. The Rams are now 2-3 in the CIAA and 2-4 overall.

Ram linebacker Curtis Richardson drops quarterback as Quincey Crank [65] comes in to help. Photo by R. Eller

Forsyth County Economic Development Corporation

IN COOPERATION WITH
U.S. Department of Commerce
Office of Minority Business Enterprise

PROVIDES ASSISTANCE TO SMALL BUSINESSMEN WHO ARE INTERESTED IN ORGANIZING A NEW BUSINESS OR EXPANDING ON EXISTING BUSINESS.
CALL 724-3676