Gaines And Hooks Receive Award

Rams Play Last Game

On Saturday night, Nov. 23 at 7:30 p.m. in Bowman Gray Stadium, the Football Rams play their last game of the season against the Fighting Christians of Elon College.

Prior to the football game, on Saturday evening at 5:30 p.m. the basketball Rams will scrimmage as the varsity squads meet in the Red and White Game in Whitaker Gymnasium on campus.

The Red team coached by Don Williams, is made up of upper classmen - the seasoned veterans and returning lettermen. The White team, coached by Bill English, is made up of the yet-to-be tested freshmen and first season players.

The public is invited to this free preview of the 1974 Basketball Rams.

Clarence E. Gaines, Director of Athletics and basketball coach at Winston-Salem State University is one of two recipients of an Honor Award 1974 from the North Carolina Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Coach Gaines was cited for his outstanding contributions to the area of physical education in North Carolina.

Dr. Edgar Hooks, Chairman of the Department of Health and Physical Education at East Carolina University was also honored.

The awards were presented to Gaines & Hooks during the Thursday night session Nov. 14 of the 27th Annual Convention of the N.C. Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

On Friday afternoon Nov. 15 Coach Gaines was a guest panelist at the convention. The panel topic: "Time to Be Co-existent: Physical Education and Athletics".

The three day convention (November 14 - November 16) is being held at the Convention Hotel, Sheraton Center in Charlotte, N.C.
