A luncheon was held recently honoring George H. Vaughn, retiring District Manager for Winston-Salem District of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Co.

Harold R. Davis, C.L.U., Regional Director introduced the Guest Speaker who was L.B. Frasier, Vice President Agency Director of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Co.

and dedicated person while helping to build the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company through the Winston-Salem Agency over was installed as new District Manager.

Frasier stressed that Vaughn had been a very loyal fourth manager of the Winston District since its beginning which means that managers usually stay on this district to either early or normal retirement.

Brief but fitting remarks were given in behalf of Vaughn by Dr. D.R. Hedgley, Pastor Emeritus of First Baptist Church and Dr. J.A. Dillard, Minister of music at First Baptist Church. Presentations were made consisting of Retirement Plaques from the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company and the Winston-Salem District. The gifts were received by C.H. Davis, Staff Manager.

Special tribute was paid to former retired members of the Winston District in attendance. Namely, Mrs. Alma Frazier and Mrs. Elizabeth Wright as well as Messers Mitchell Byrd, W.J. Boulware, Maceo Fields and S.E. Alford.

Vaughn expressed extreme gratitude to the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company for the opportunities offered him.

He requested the Winston-Salem Agency to continue to build the company founded in 1898, with the help of the factors; imagination, courage, faith and prayer as well as to develop the attitude of the poet as expressed in these words: "To thine ownself be true, then it must follow as the night, the day, thou cans't be false to anyone".

He said that we will be true if we live up to our abilities and potentialities while responding to another poet who said, "If you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds worth of fistance run".

Others attending the luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Cathcart; Mrs. Josie Shirley; Mrs. Annie McClenon; G.E. Phillips; C.I. Sawyer; C.C. Ross; R.N. Davis; Frank Dulin; T.F. Poag; James Shaw; Robert Miller; Roy Camp; Elliott Brown; Mrs. Ola M. Forte; Carl H. Russell; James Johnson; T.H. Hooper; Mrs. Frank Murrell; John H. Alexander; Clark S. Delta Sorority Has chapter joined Deltas from neighboring communities in the Ball Room at the Hyatt House for a Founders' Day luncheon. The members were very happy to greet Soror Louise Riddick, South Atlantic Regional Director as one of the guest to the Founders' Day celebration.

The chapter was honored to have as their luncheon speaker, Mrs. Thelma T. Daley, the first vice present of the National group. Soror Daley is employed as a career Educational Specialist for the Baltimore County Board of Education. Recently, she was elected president of the American Personnel and Guidance Association.

Soror Daley held the Deltas spellbound as she talked informally from the national theme of the sorority, Delta Women Breaking New Ground. She challenged her sisters to become involved in worthwhile activities keeping in mind the aims of the 22 women who envisioned the sorority 62 years ago. "In joining the women liberation movement never forget the human-being movement," she said. She reminded the audience it must not forget that human-beings are still living in substandard areas; the teen-agers unemployed and always remember that the black woman has to knock on twice as many doors looking for employment before one is opened for her. In closing, she emphasized the fact that women must join hands and treat each other as sisters and as you "Break New Ground, take the person next to you because she is your sister."

Miss Eddis Reinhardt, past president of the Alumnae Chapter, presided. Mrs. Iris Officer, president of the local chapter introduced the speaker. Mrs. Marian Wilson paid tribute to the founders, and music was furnished by Miss Pansy Riddick and Mrs. Simona A. Allen.

Our Daily Bread

by Evangelist Pat Cunningham

While we're watching and waiting, for the bridegroom to come. Keep merry in your hearts with David's Psalm Praise the Lord all ye His saints, trust His word and keep the faith. "Vengeance is mine", saith the Lord God. Praise His name with the timbrel and harp. Psalms 149 chapter. Faith --things hoped for. Hebrew 11 chapter.

Dear ones, let us not be weary in well doing. Keep the faith and know that God cannot lie. He has promised us Peace, Joy and Happiness. He on His way back to fulfill His promise of eternal life also. Remember, Peace can only be yours through Jesus. Joy comes from serving the Lord. Happiness is ours through reading His word. Faith comes from doing. God loves you all. May He keep your mind til next time.
