Chronicle Profile

“Man Of The Year”

Being recognized as a “Man of the Year” isn't easy and to earn this distinction one must have an impressive list of accomplishments. This year the Winston-Salem VIP Civic Club chose a man of many talents as their “Man of the Year”. Pride Walker Roseborough.

Roseborough was born June 8, 1934 in Winston-Salem and grew up here. He attended public schools here and furthered his education at Russell's Business College, Forsyth Technical Institute and is presently attending Winsalm Business College.

Roseborough is extremely active in the community. The U.S. Navy veteran is a member of New Light Baptist Church and is active with the local Y.M.C.A. He started his work with the Y.M.C.A. at a very young age. He became involved in the youth programs and was active in the Hi-Y. He has continued his involvement with the Y.M.C.A. through the years.

He has served as a member of the Phalanx Club and on the Board of Management as well as on the camp committee. In 1958 his family was honored as Y.M.C.A. “Family of the Year”. He and his son have also been chosen as Father and Son of the Year by the Y.M.C.A.

In addition to his service with the Y.M.C.A. he has been active in scouting for 25 years. During this time he has received every award scouting has to offer including the Silver Beaver Award, the highest a volunteer scout can receive. In addition to these awards he has served as Cub Master, Scout Master, Committee Member, Committee Chairman, order of the Arrow Advisor, Institutional Representative, District Commissioner, District Vice Chairman, District Chairman of the Board (Camp Robert Vaughn) District Finance Chairman and Executive Board Member.

Roseborough's interest in scouting can be traced back to his childhood. As a young boy he spent hours rambling through the woods when he was not sloping hogs, picking berries for five cents a bucket or selling Christmas trees for 25 cents each.

Roseborough says he was completely surprised at being named “Man of the Year” by the Civic Club. His only other comment was, “its a wonderful honor.”

When asked how he finds time to work, go to school, be active in church, scouting and the Y.M.C.A. as well as raise a family he answers, “you always find time to do the things you're interested in.”

P.J., as he is affectionately called, is married to the former Miss Susanna Francine Little and they have four children; two sons, Reginald and Roger and two daughters, Rhoda and Rita. He also has a grandson, Roger Jr. He is employed by R.J. Archer Aluminum as a dispatcher and says he enjoys his work immensely.

Roseborough says the two things he likes most in life are helping others and working with young people.

Dear Liz'

Teenager Desperate For Date

Dear Liz:

I am 14 years of age and have not had one date in my life. It is not because boys don't find me attractive and ask me for dates, but my parents are “old fashion” and says, I can't receive dates until I am 15. Liz, that's a whole year and I am afraid I can't wait that long. What should I do?-- Worried Teenager

Dear Worried Teenager: My reply may not please you, but I think you should wait for your parents permission to date. Remember, “anything worth having is worth waiting for.”

Dear Liz: I have a problem. My boyfriend has a body odor which is very noticeable. I don't want to hurt his feelings, so as a hint, I have given him several bottles of expensive men's cologne. He won't wear any of them. He says they make him smell. What should I do? --Nosey

Dear Nosey? Instead of accentuating the positive, try eliminating the negative by giving him a bar of soap.
