Our Daily Bread

For the world is soon to have a visit, from the very God above! St. Mark - 13: Proverbs 22:6

Praise the Lord dear ones! Each day brings the coming of the Lord closer and closer. Train your children in the way of the Lord. Tell them about the love of God. Jesus is calling the young as well as the old today. Help others to know Him. He takes care of our every need. We must stay busy working because satan has but a short time now and he knows it. We're in the midst of a war, but the battle is the Lord's. Stand firm soldiers, in this army of the Lord!! May God keep your mind til next time.

Reach out dear hearts, and touch the Lord. Hold His banner high, Jesus Christ is passing this way; don't let Him pass you by. Teach your children, train them soon, show them Jesus' love- tell them all they have to know, especially His rules. We're all getting ready to meet the Lord, we're preparing for that glorious day; when the groom will come and take His bride, the church, away. Praise God my heart, sing out His love, hold tight to His every word.

Gospel Music Is Art Form

"Gospel Music has taken its rightful place among the art forms in America." The speaker is the Gospel singing giant, Rev. James Cleveland in an interview prior to his concern at the Winston-Salem Coliseum recently. A stirring performer who has moved audiences for thirty years, Rev. James Cleveland sees Gospel Music as a unique art form with broader horizons in the future. "I do not sing for money, I could make much more money singing rock and soul, but there is joy and pure excitement singing the Gospel." He said that Gospel Music has great rewards with a message for many people it touches the saved and unsaved. Our music offers encouragement to all through Jesus Christ, he said. "There are so many things that affect peoples lives and because Gospel Music is totally inspirational, it consoles and revives."

The Reverant, charismatic singer is proclaimed world wide as the King of Gospel and The Crown Prince. He had entertained audiences in Paris, Sweden, Japan and Switzerland. "On a world wide basis, says Rev. Cleveland, Gospel Music is an exciting new concept." A great youth movement to Christ gives Gospel Music more power and voice than ever he said.

The musical genius is also the founder and director of the successful Gospel workshop of America, which after eight years has more than 20,000 voices, many of whom come from the Winston-Salem area. "It is my goal to establish a Black College for the preservation of Gospel Music where we will teach, prepare and perfect."

As he distinguished between religious services and religious entertainment, Rev. Cleveland prepared to greet an audience of 3,000 who waited patiently for four hours by saying that Gospel Music is the forerunner of Gospel preaching, It is a vital part of the team, he said.

Rev. James Cleveland ordered the house lights raised, the audience cheered and they were one. The Gospel according to James Cleveland says to Black People, HOLD ON.
