Street Preacher Brings Message

by Isaac Caree, II
Staff Writer

"Upon this rock, I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Matt. 16:18. This passage of scripture was inspired by our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ as a standard of a solid foundation to those that are born in Him.

Evangelist Lester Griffith has stood on this solid foundation for the past 23 years as he expounds the word of God downtown on the Post Office square.

"There are many people who do not go to church, so the only way to introduce them to God is by going out into the highways and hedges and compelling them to come to Christ," said Evangelist Griffith following one of his dynamic sermons.

"In my 23 years," says Evangelist Griffith, "I have seen many drawn to God through this ministry. I'm not a pastor, neither do I belong to any particular denomination, but I can wholly proclaim that I am used of God as an instrument for His service."

Evangelist Griffith may be found on the square every day from 10 a.m.-1:30 p.m. preaching and glad to answer any questions one might have.

He feels there is a great need for this type of ministry, because of the present condition of this world." God needs someone that is not ashamed to stand up for Him and His cause," Griffith explained.

"I would like to add as we celebrate this Bicentennial, ask more of God's guidance for our future and not for prosperity.

I guarantee that by harkening to His will, we will prosper and be in good health even as our souls prosper. Is this important? You bet your life!"
