Our Daily Bread

Praise the Lord! Dear Hearts, let us continue---

St. John 1-19 -- John bare witness unto the truth on earth, he did so much preaching and baptizing that the Jews wanted to know if he was the Christ that was to come.

Verse 20 -- John confessed that he was not the Christ and didn't try to hide the fact that he was not him. The Acts 13:25.

Verse 21 -- They thought he might be Elias whom God promised to send before the coming of the Lord or he might be the prophet spoken of in Deuteronomy 18:15.

Verse 22 -- After the Jews found out that John was neither of these, they wanted an answer they could take back to the authorities.

Verse 23 & 24 -- John spoke to them through prophecy. He was the one who had lived in the wilderness preaching the gospel of Christ. His coming had already been told by Isaiah. Isaiah 40:3.

Verse 25 -- The Priests couldn't understand why John was baptizing and he wasn't the Christ or Elias or the Prophet. To them, he was wasting his time.

Verse 26 -- John baptized with water unto repentance, meaning only an outward showing to man you have repented of your sins and confessed Christ Jesus in your heart as Lord and Savior. Jesus would baptize with the inward baptism or the Holy Ghost and with fire. He was telling them that Jesus was already among them on the earth. John 3:5 - Malachi 3:1

Verse 27 -- Jesus was coming after John, even though he was present before John. John knew that Jesus was the Christ, the Savior of the world and the work that he was doing was not near as great as that which Jesus had to do, for Jesus came to die for man. John came to bear witness, therefore he felt that he was not worthy to untie Jesus' shoes. Praise God! The Acts 19:427

Verse 28 -- John baptized in the Jordan River. The place where they were, was just east of Jordan. Judges 7:24, John 10:40. May God Keep your mind til next time.

"What wives wish their husbands knew about Women"

by
Dr. James Dobson
Author of the best seller
"Dare to Discipline"

The title of this book, What Wives Wish Their Husbands Knew about Women, reflects the vital role played by men in helping their wives overcome gloom and despair. In fact, all ten of the items listed are usually related to (or aggravated by) an unsatisfactory relationship between men and women. Simply stated, women often have unique emotional needs and aspirations which their husbands fail to understand and ap

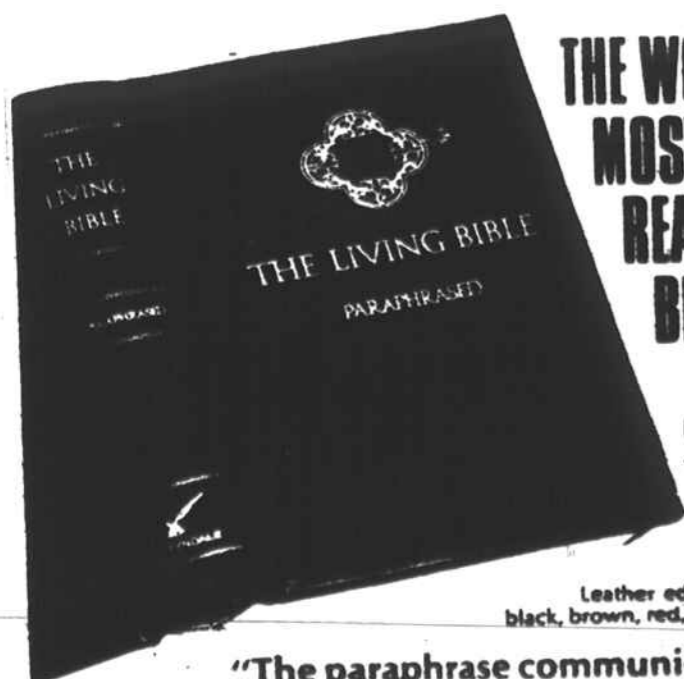

In this book, Dr. Dobson provides an empathetic look at these barriers to marital harmony, and then offers many insightful and helpful suggestions

Both men and women will find his discussion interesting, often humorous, and immensely practical in application to everyday living.
