Man In The Street

The Importance of Thanksgiving

by Robert Eller
 Staff Reporter

With the Thanksgiving Holiday upon us and the spirit of Christmas beginning to fill the air, this week the "Man in the Street" decided to stay on the light side. Here are some of the responses of Winston-Salemites on the question of Why is the Thanksgiving Holiday important to you?

Edna Mason 27, said, "Well, its a day that the whole family gets together and is happy. To me thats the major thing."

Mildred Nash 69, commented, "It's important to me because I'm thankful to God to be able to see Thanksgiving."

Ethel Hampton 68, stated, "I think its a time for good food, turkey, dressing, sweet potato pie etc. Its a time when everybody enjoys good food." Andrea Dean, 25, answered, "Its a day when I don't have to work, thats important to me."

Martin Frazier 57, responded, "Its a time to give thanks to God for all the good things he's done for you since last Thanksgiving."

Diane Boger 20, stated, "Families getting together and eating are the important things to me."

Mattie Hayes 62, said, "Its a day to be thankful to God, and I love to cook and all my children bring their families over to eat with me."

Jackie Herring 20, commented, "The most important things to me are the freedom from studies and the food."

Harry Crabtree 36, quipped, "Its a day other than Sunday when I can sit down and watch a couple of good football games."

Harold Menck 46, answered, "Its a chance to stop and reflect on Gods blessings."

William King 31, responded, "Its a day off with pay." James Stinson 47, added, "Its just another day except you have turkey."

Rev. F.A. Leak 63, answered, the important thing is the blessing. You'll find it in Psalms, 95 chapter and the first and second verses.

Two of the most-interesting comments came from seven year-old Robert Johnson and a 25 year old newlywed man.

Young Johnson said, "I don't have to go to school, and I get all the desert I want."

The newlywed who would not give his name for obvious reasons added, "I'll get a chance to eat some of my mothers cooking."

Thanksgiving means many things to many people but most importantly its a time for peace, joy, and togetherness.
