The boys basketball team from St. Benedict the Moor Catholic School won first place in the annual Piedmont Catholic School League Basketball Tournament last weekend.

The tournament was held at Bishop McGuinness Memorial High School.

After three minutes of overtime, the final score was 38 for St. Benedict and 37 for St. Leo's.

During the tournament, the cheerleaders from St. Benedict's also won first-place in the cheerleaders tournament. This was the first time the girls of St. Benedict's had ever won.

Sister Patrice, principal at St. Benedict's said the basketball and cheerleader tournament competition was being held between three schools from Winston-Salem, two from Greensboro and one each from High Point and Burlington.

Oliver Wheeler is coach of the basketball team and Miss Billie Williams is coach for the cheerleaders.

Members of the basketball team include Eddie Moore, Dwight Jones, Eric Ford, Ben Johnson, Harold Brooks, Cary Cain and Toni Miller.

Members of the cheerleaders include Cynthia Gore, Tim McFadden, Rosa Ervin, Malia Cain, Tammy Mickens, Sonja Glenn, Montrice Watson, Wendy Carter, Vicki Foster, Catherine Wilson and Jackie Blackmon.

This weekend, both the girls and boys will also be playing in another tournament.

With a very wide grin, Sister Patrice said those last three minutes of overtime was really something. "I've never been so excited in my life."

Even though she's hoping for another win this weekend, she also hopes it won't be as nerve racking on the body.

Benefit Fashion Show Held

by Azzie Wagner
Staff Writer

"A Prelude to Spring Fashions" was the title of a fashion show presented and sponsored by the Winston-Salem Enterprises last Sunday evening. The show was held in the chapel of Johnson's Home of Memory and was directed by Mrs. Barbara Wardlow. Commentator was Mrs. Johnetta Moore.

This was the first in a series of fund-raising activities to be sponsored by Winston-Salem Enterprises - a newly formed organization. According to James Johnson, the purpose of the organization is to aid and assist underprivileged people in times of distress; be it financial or otherwise.

Models participating in the affair were: Misses Gwendolyn Marshall, Carla Shirley, Carolyn Clemmons, Ethleen Duckett, Dianne Campbell, Willie Downs, Angie Clark, Sharion Lowery, Glenda De Lapp, Connie Woods, Wardell

Williams, Luther Leonard, James Leake, and Willie Downs. Featured soloists were Mrs. Gale Garner and Mrs. Myrtle Goods.
