

WINSTON-SALEM CHRONICLE

Vol. III, No. 3

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

Saturday September 18, 1976

Single Copy 20¢

Bank Files Suit

NORTH WILKESBORO -- The Northwestern Bank has announced that it has filed suit against the Internal Revenue Service in U.S. District Court in Winston-Salem for recovery of a refund of income taxes in the amount of $162,000. The suit covers refund of income taxes for the years 1964-1967, which was the subject of claims for refund filed in July 1974 for income tax assessments paid in 1972.

Additional suits will be filed by the Bank and Northwestern Financial Corporation for substantially larger amounts, in order to expedite recovery on total claims in excess of eleven million dollars for the years 1968-70, which were filed in April, 1976.

I Shot, Another Beaten Over $1

by Rudy Anderson
Staff Writer

People hear about these again and again, but it still causes one to pause when blood has been spilled over the paltry sum of $1.

Recently police responded to a shooting call from 1223 East 20th St. When the officer arrived he found Morris Brown, 40, of 1115-G East 18th on the front porch bleeding from the head. The officer noticed a trail of blood from the porch to the walkway.

Entering the apartment he found Howard Trayman, 35, of 1223 East 20th with a bullet wound in his right thigh. The officer was then given two conflicting reports of what happened.

In the first account, Trayman said he took Brown's

City is experiencing increase in peep shows, but draws little criticism from residents.

Peep Shows Enjoy Brisk Business Here

by Rudy Anderson
Staff Writer

The sign on the door reads, "if parts of the nude anatomy offend you 'Do not enter.' "It also says that you must be at least 18 in order to get in.

Once you enter, you've walked into the world of the Peep Show.

Winston-Salem is right in the middle of the Bible belt, and it seems odd that a city dominated by Baptist and Moravians would allow a "business" like this to operate. But, with times changing and morality codes being more relaxed, it is little wonder that there has been no public cry of outrage.

Talking with people in the streets showed a rather passive acceptance in most cases. For example, two pretty, young secretary types said as they were passing that they were not even aware that the peep shows were here. One man said he did not have the money to spend to go. One man, surprisingly, was bitterly against it, although he declined to say why. His friend said, "Hell, I figure if you're 21 you ought to be able to see what you want to." One lady said she had been in them before and it was not "her kind of thing." She added "It's ok with me, but different people got different taste."

See Peep Shows, Page 2

car to a garage near North Liberty Street. Trayman reportedly told Brown that it cost him two dollars to get home and he wanted to get reimbursed for it. Brown then gave Trayman a dollar and a heated argument followed because of the remaining dollar.

Trayman told Brown to leave the house. He said Brown dared him to come outside. He took the dare and went out, where Brown, pulled a gun and shot him in the leg. Trayman then allegedly wrestled the gun from Brown and started beating him over the head with it, causing numerous cuts.

Brown's account was far different. He said he never had a pistol. He also denied ever going to Trayman's

See Friends, Page 2

Suspect Nabbed In Robbery Case

On August 15th, Mr. Henry Mack Grier was shot and robbed in Happy Hill Garden as he carried out his daily tasks as a community salesman of snack foods and other little oddities.

Last week police took into custody one of two suspects in the shooting and robbery of Mr. Grier.

The suspect in custody is identified as Winfred Veotis Reid, 16, of 1227 Free Street. He has been charged with armed robbery and assault with intent to kill. There was also a previous warrant out on him for house breaking and larceny.

Police were given a lead as to Reid's location. When they arrived, they found Reid being held to the ground by four people, including his mother, Mrs. Betty Reid, on the 1400 block of Timlic St.

His preliminary hearing was held September 7th in the District Court, after which a date was set to determine whether enough evidence was available to bring the case to trial. The date for that hearing was set for September 21, 1976. Reid is being held under a $10,000 dollar bond for each offense, in addition to the previous offense which brings his total bond to $22,000.

Police have identified the other suspect in this case to be Jerry Leonard Morrison of 1502 Fitch Street. His age is yet unknown. Any information as to his location would be greatly appreciated by the police.

Lee Loses Bid For Lt. Governor

Blasting the light voter turnout, especially among blacks statewide Howard Lee, conceded defeat Tuesday night to Jimmy Greene winner of the democratic nomination for Lt. Governor.

Lee's struggle to become the first black man to be elected to a statewide office was blocked by what he called poor showing at the polls among blacks and others who did not vote all. Although Lee swept Forsyth County, he trailed Greene statewide by about 12 percentage points. Greene took 55% of the vote to Lee's 43%.

Lee indicated shortly before the conceding victory that while his campaign had never aligned itself to race issues that it was evident that race was a factor in his loss. North Carolina has traditionally never voted a black into office in a statewide race.

In other races David T. Flaherty won his bid for the republican party's nomination for governor beating Coy C. Privette. Locally Mrs. Mazie Woodruff and Dr. James Ziglar won their bids for county commissioner beating out Governor F. Shugart by almost 3,000 votes.

Inside

Editorial ... page 4

Church ... Page 5

Society ... page 6

Entertainment ... page 10

Profile ... page 13

Sports ... page 15