

Azzie Wagner's Social Whirl

Fifty Golden Years

The O.W. McMichaels of Kernersville celebrated their 50th Anniversary Sunday at the fellowship hall of Goodwill Baptist Church in Kernersville. The McMichaels have eight children: Miss Ava McMichael, Mrs. Joe Lunsford, and Mrs. Ray Walsh, all of Belews Creek; Mrs. David Williams of Kernersville; Mrs. Frank McNeil of Advance; and Mrs. Jack Hester of Doraville, Ga. They also have 12 grandchildren.

Spaulding-Mack Nuptials

The beauty and briskness of an autumn day lent color to the 4:00 p.m. wedding of Miss Walteria Yvette Mack and Clifton Clinton Spaulding last Saturday afternoon in Emmanuel Baptist Church. Rev. Benjamin Mack of Durham and Rev. Carl Gill were officiating ministers.

The bride attended Winston-Salem State University and is an employee of R.J. Reynolds Industries, Inc. Rev. and Mrs. S. Walter Mack of Bon Air Avenue of the city are her parents.

Spaulding is a cum laude graduate of A&T State University where he is a graduate student. He was tapped to Alpha Tau Alpha Honor Society at A&T State. He is a soil conservationist for the U.S. Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service. The Lemuel Aaron Spauldings of Clarkton are his parents.

Honor attendants were Miss Cynthia Mack and Mrs. Marshall Rollins of Washington, D.C.; sisters of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mistresses: Monica Mack, Vickie Jones, Gail Griffin, Annette Hairston, Brenda Miller, Belinda Daniels, Lelia Gill, Delores Bailey, Debbie Dillard, Valerie Rorie, La Shanda Millner, and Kimberly Spaulding.

Carlton Spaulding of Durham was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were: Walter Mack, William Earl Oliver, Willie Middlebrook, Christopher Evans, Peter Davis, Loumichael Adams, Marion Mack, Ervin Mack, Clarence Millner, Melvin Daniels, Maurice Coleman, and Christopher Redd. A reception followed the nuptials.

A Capitol Week-End - Plus!

Friends of the charming Sharon Reid of Winston-Salem's Franciscan Terrace Apartments really showed her a "boss" time the past week-end as she visited them and relatives in Washington, D.C. not for political reasons but for the pleasure of a "jet away" week-end to party, party, party! Getting on down with friends in the "Capitol" city were the Tom Yountzes (cousins), and son Rodney, The Calvin Haleys, Mistresses Anneice Gray, Yvette Leak, Brooks Evans, Annette Hawkins and while out on the town at the swank "Pisces" Club, Sharon really got the thrill of a lifetime as they had the pleasure of meeting Twana Kilgore (Miss Black America) as well as Walter Fautroy (D., -D.C.) and D.C. Mayor Walter Washington. No doubt about it, the week-end was a gas! However, stated Sharon, "It's good to be back in my twin-city hometown!"

Other VIP's At Carefree Reception

Last week readers, by an honest "faux pas" a few of you "blossoming" Socialites were left out of the "Carefree Life Reception" at the exclusive Regency Ballroom beneath the Hyatt House! It appears that there was just an overabundance of VIP's in attendance so please consider this an "addendo" to last week's first scoop in Social Whirl.

Of course everyone realizes that without the following "glittering" socialites aforementioned, no affair would have been complete. There in splendor were The Pride Shores, The Chico Domingo Fairs, Dr. Geraldine Harris and daughter Karen, The David Huffs, The Willie Adamses, The Harvey Millers, The H. Goodsons, and The Payton Hairstons.

Wasting no time enjoying the repertoire of "Dr. Fred Tanner and The Ebony Music Company" was the V. Prexy of RJR Industries, Mr. Bill Hind, "hard working" Freddie Bynun, and scores more. Charming socialites enhancing the splendor of the occasion even more were Mesdames: Elaine Browne, Brenda Galloway, Liz Goldsborough, Mavis Llod, "Cupcake" Kaiser, Nancy Matthewson, Pearlina Jones, Jane Fulton, Betty Drayton and hostess Amanda Greene.

Adding just the "right touch" were the W.C. Temples, Edward D. Kirk and adding a touch of inspiration was the Rev. William Saxe Epps... And that's the way it was, at the "Carefree Life '76" Reception. Check it out next time!

Beauty Is A Service - No Diamonds Can Buy It

by Azzie Wagner
Staff Writer

The Twenty Fourth Annual Regional Meeting of the National Beauty Cultures League, Inc., held its continuing educational seminars and workshops the past weekend beginning October 30 and ending Nov. 1.

Cosmetologists from Region IV encompassing the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North and South Carolina met in the swank Downtowner Motor Inn for a cross-region exchange of ideas about the very latest trends in the world of beauty. This year's flamboyant theme was "Beauty Is A Service, No Diamonds Can Buy It."

The National Hair Designers Guild which is the highest branch of the League was also well-represented with such figures as the National Assistant to the President Ms. Gladys Davis and Mrs. Josephine Thomas, Financial Secretary and treasurer.

According to a representative, a cosmetologist becomes a member of the Guild after extensive training beyond the normal courses in beauty care. After an extensive training program and careful screening and testing, membership is gained. Only three beauticians locally are members of the Guild. They are Mesdames Barbara Wardlow, Anna Leake, and Minnie Ervin.

Activities of the Region IV meeting consisted of business classes in "Haircutting and Shaping" by Mr. Jim Sutton (Phila. Pa.); "Parliamentary Law" by Mrs. Esther Wiley of Durham and "Cosmetic Chemistry" by Mrs. Marion

Ms. Anna Leak, 2nd place winner; Mrs. Minnie Ervin, chairperson; and Mrs. Barbara Wardlow, 1st place winner.

Crowder of Atlanta, Ga.

Sunday afternoon's festivities consisted of "Hairstyle Competition" where attenders competed for trophies. Receiving First Place was Mrs. Barbara Wardlow and taking second was Mrs. Anna Leak. Both are well known twin-city beauticians. Judges for this division hailed from Detroit (Mich.) Kansas City (Mo.) and Cincinnati (Ohio).

See Beauty, Page 14

Turn on the glamour.

joyce

$31

Stanley's Simmons
SHOES

Black Kid
Navy Kid

Downtown
on the Mall

Anastasia Furs

A Magnificent Collection of Quality Furs

Over 30 years experience

•Cleaning & Glazing

INSURED COLD STORAGE ON OUR OWN PREMISES.

Dial

725-8303

Winston-Salem Hyatt House

