Mrs. Adams To Sing In Concert

In observance of their anniversary, the Chancel Choir of Hanes Memorial C.M.E. Church, will present Mrs. Jane Harrington Adams in concert. The date of the contest is June 19, 1977 at 4 p.m. in the main sanctuary of the church.

A native of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Adams is a graduate of High Mowing Prep School in Wilton, N.H., and is a graduate of Fisk University in Nashville, Tenn., where she graduated with honors. Her area of concentration in school was voice and English.

Mrs. Adams was a soloist with the Fisk Jubilee Singers and the Fisk University Concert Choir while in college. In 1968, she studied music and art in Paris, France, Rome, Italy and Florence, Italy.

A recipient of numerous awards, Mrs. Adams received the Metropolitan Opera Award in 1971 and in 1969, she received the Pressor Foundation Award. She is also listed in Who's Who Among American College and University Students (1972).

Currently, she is employed as a news anchor for WXII-TV and is host of "Shades of Ebony". She is married to Walter P. Adams, Jr., and they reside in Rural Hall, N.C.

Mrs. Adams is the daughter of Mrs. Janie R. Harrington and the late Alton T. Harrington.

Mt. Olive Holds Men's Day

The Mt. Olive Baptist Church at 1801 E. Belows will hold its Men's Day Program on Sunday, June 19 with the Rev. J. H. Moore as guest pastor.

Rev. Moore, the pastor and founder of Central Baptist Church in Washington, D.C., where he has preached for the past thirteen years, is a native of Conway, S.C. He moved to Washington, D.C., in 1940 and was called to the ministry in 1951, at which time he continued his education at the Washington Baptist Seminary.

Rev. Moore is presently studying at the University Bible School for his Doctorate of Divinity degree.

Mt. Olive pastor C.E. Greene extends an invitation for everyone to attend this special Men's Day program.

Prayer Poem

Close to the time of Christ these words about our gifts or service were written, supposedly by St. James:

"From strength to strength we go forward on Zion's highway. To appear before God in the city of infinite day. Thanksgiving and glory and worship, and blessing, and love. One heart and one song have thy Saints upon earth and above."
