"NOTES OF THE WEEK....."

A new twist has been added to BILL ELLIOTT's "Touch Of Class Disco" out Santa Monica way. Every Monday nite is a jazz-for-listening-plus night, with Bill doing his drumming thing, and lovely LU ELLIOTT (no relation) giving with her song stylings that are something else.

Speaking of emporiums of the ritzy nature, HERB PEYTON's ever popular Page Four on the west side of Angeltown has contracted the services of ex-John Robert Powers high fashion model and actress ARLENE PINKARD to consult with his bevy of beautiful waitresses to give more of themselves in the charm, poise, and grace department.

Here's a chuckle for you. SIR LADY JAVA was called by CHUCK BARRIS and staff to audition for a regular role on Chuck's new TV Show with her 'ole grey mare' routine. Everything was going along fine with the cameras rolling, until SIR Lady Java stripped down for the finale exposing her shapely body clad only in a "G" string... how's that for lights, cameras, and action on TV???

CARLA THOMAS will be hooking up with her dad RUFUS THOMAS and SAM LAWS to tour the colleges this fall with their all new and exciting revue. Unfortunately THE DELLS a long time favorite vocal group flew all the way to Angeltown to perform in concert at the Shrine Auditorium over the past week end, only to have the promoter cancel their engagement at the last minute, which indeed was a 'cold shot' to one of the oldest professional groups around with a current record that's happening.

Be on the lookout for a mind blowing musical group called CLYDE, THEM, & HER, that's got JOHNNY "GUITAR" WATSON, RUDY

COPELAND, and LARRY WILLIAMS talking to themselves about this multi-talented group of performers from Kansas City. A sad musical note comes from the passing of GLEN GOINS, 24-year old former lead guitarist and singer with the Parliament-Funkadelics who passed away Saturday night July 29, following a flare-up of his childhood-inherited Hotchkins Disease.

"HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE....." MARK MOTEN is becoming one of the leading photographers around Hollywood shooting the stars. Meanwhile, fashion designer JEROME SMITH, a former Nu Yawker, is garnering all the honors and business as the leading designer among the stars and celebrities.

Our predictions several months ago that FAME would be the next new musical group happening is now close to a reality with veteran songwriter and producer, ED TOWNSEND.

George Mack

Mack in Festival

Several months ago George Mack got tired of being a part-time artist, gave up a well-paying truck-driving job, and set up Gemini Arts and Crafts, selling his own art work and that of other local artists.

The fact that he is still in business is considered a good sign by other aspiring artists.

Mack will be displaying his works in the Black Art and Culture Festival, to be held September 2nd downtown. His exhibit will feature a wide variety of works, because Mack does not confine himself to one style. He plans to exhibit oils, water colors, portraits, landscapes, string painting, paintings on mirrors--his versatility is remarkable.

Mack also does picture framing, and does paintings, string art, or portraits by request. He plans to have a large selection of his works on display at the festival.
