ets were printed, and very strict and accurate records were kept. The general public was invited to the drawing. Numerous club women and friends attended. Luncheon Club members were highly pleased with their hard work.

Mrs. Bessie Beatty announced the results of the drawing.

After the mailing stamps and silver expenses were subtracted, the rest of the money was presented to Mrs. Hawkins by check.

Mrs. Hawkins is the wife of Lloyd Hawkins. They live at 2411 Patterson Avenue. She is a member of Mercy Seat Holiness Church. Mrs. Hawkins has been honored on local, state and national levels for her work in Extension Homemakers Club circles.

sioners to urge the school board to open up schools at night so that tutoring could be conducted for students facing the competency test.

In other action, the board changed the fire code to allow the fire marshal to tow cars parked in fire lanes and to provide for a $5.00 civil penalty for cars found parked in such lanes.

The board also made persons who acquire dogs following the annual assessment period liable for the entire year's fee of $5.00 if the animal is acquired before June 30 and for half-year if after June 30.

memberships include the American Association of Retired Persons, Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools' Brotherhood, North Carolina Retired Personnel, Mental Health Association of Forsyth County, and Northeast Neighborhood Council of Winston-Salem.

Before retiring from the school system, she served as President of the North Carolina Teachers Division of Classroom Teachers, past President of the Winston-Salem Division of A.C.T. (Association of Classroom Teachers), Chairman of the IDP State Committee and President of District 4, North Carolina Association of Educators.

Despite such vast commitments in the public sector, she still finds time to be just plain "Nettie," the wife, mother and grandmother. She is happily married to John W. Manning, Jr. They are the proud parents of one daughter, Mattie.
