

Lucile H. Douthit Young Pianist Plays for Church

By Isaac Carree, II

George Arthur Pass II, age 11, is considered quite a musical prodigy by his fellow church members.

At the age of 11 he has reached peaks and heights that are remarkable for an organist who first began playing by ear only. He then ventured into formal training.

At the age of seven he began piano lessons under the guidance of Ms. Adele Scott, a local piano tutor and teacher. He studied under Ms. Scott for two years and presently he is an outstanding student at the "Metts Music Studio" here in Winston-Salem.

George has appeared at several musical recitals, each time leaving the audiences stunned and amazed. He is also the only piano and organ player for his church, Love Temple C. O. G. I. C., where his father,

George A. Pass is pastor.

Pass has displayed his talents many times in such states as Ohio, New York, Virginia and other surrounding areas. His career objective is to one day become an attorney, but most people wouldn't be a bit surprised if he turned out to be another Bach.

George has two sisters, Sonja and Jerri and two brothers Scott and Jeffrey all of whom are musically oriented.

Frances Bradley
