Guild Presents Fashion Fair

The 21st Annual Ebony Fashion Fair will appear in Winston-Salem at Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium on Friday, October 27, 1978. This famed traveling fashion show is produced by EBONY magazine and is sponsored by the Winston-Salem Urban League Guild for the benefit of its Scholarship Fund.

Mrs. Eunice W. Johnson, producer and director of the show, personally selected fashions from the exciting American and European collections of such famed designers as Halston, Anne Klein, Koos Van Den Akker, Mary McFadden, Richard Assatly, James Daugherty, Stephen Burrows, Jeffrey Banks, Cerruti, Castleback, Givency, Enzo Russo, Antonelli and Lanvin.

Mrs. Johnson's yearly visits to the fashion capitols of the world are made for the exclusive purpose of bringing back the most spectacular garments available for EBONY Fashion Fair. She is meticulous and thorough as evidenced by the continuing demand for sponsorship by organizations all over the country.

The show consists of more than 200 garments complete with the latest accessories, 10 female and 2 male models, a commentator, music director, stage and business managers and wardrobe staff. Because of the unprecedented demand for sponsorship of the show from organizations, EBONY Fashion Fair now tours two seasons - the East from September through December and the South-west from January through April - appearing in more than 162 cities.

Clements-Gaithers Host Reunion

The Clement-Gaither Family Reunion was held in Mocksville, North Carolina at St. John's AME Zion Church where Reverend Michael Ellis is pastor and a family member.

The church was founded in 1837 by Albert Turner Clement who pastored for 36 years. Reverend Clement's sister married into the Gaither family and from this marriage, the Gaither and Clement families became closely knitted.

Dr. Milton A. Williams of Buffalo, New York, whose mother is Lillian Gaither Williams and father Mr. B.T. Williams, delivered the morning convocation. His first sermon was given at this church some years ago.

Mr. Fred Parker gave presentations to the two oldest members of the Gaither-Clement families: Ms. Esabel Nicholas of the Gaither Family and Dr. Ava Clement Jackson.

Dr. Jackson who is a well-known commentator throughout the nation and who has traveled to many parts of the country gave a very detailed history of the family ties.

It was noted that the family has records traced back to the seven installments of the Clement slaves and followups of both families.

A book will be bound in the future for each member to review.

Dinner followed in the lower auditorium after which the business meeting was held. The Reunion will be held in Greensboro, North Carolina next July 27 and 28th.

Mrs. Hazel B. Scott, general chairman of the benefit performance indicates ticket sales are going exceptionally well and expects and even larger attendance than last year. Tickets may be purchased at the Winston-Salem Urban League Office, 102 West 4th Street, Pepper Building - Suite 405.

The Winston-Salem Urban League Guild sponsors annually the Ebony Fashion Fair, Family of the Year and Brotherhood Awards, youth activities, scholarship assistance to college students and contributions to the National and local Winston-Salem Urban League.

LHC Club Starts Fall

The Love, Hope, and Charity Club of Thurmond Street started its Fall activities with a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wardell Bankhead of Baux Mountain Road, Saturday September 16th. The club, whose president is Mrs. Margaret V. Speas, had been inactive during July and August. It meets each 2nd Friday the remainder of the year.

On Saturday, after games were played and much fellowship on the patio and lawn of the Bankhead's home, the members and their guests enjoyed a delicious buffet "picnic dinner" consisting of Barbecued Chicken, various salads, pickles, dessert, and soft drinks.

Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Shaffner, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, Mrs. Hester McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bigelow, (Mr. Elmer Speas, husband of Pres. and four of their grandchildren, Mrs. Willie Mae Benson and Mr. Wardell Bankhead, whose wife is Mrs. Pearl Bankhead.
