Joyner Connor McLean

MARY M. JOYNER has been elected operations officer. Lena B. Stack has been elected data processing officer.

Mrs. Wall has been named systems officer at Wachovia Bank in Winston-Salem.

Ms. Joyner has worked in the operations area since joining Wachovia in 1967. She is currently a supervisor in the Operations Department. A native of Winston-Salem, she attended Bennett College.

Mrs. Stack joined Wachovia in 1964 as a data processing control clerk and is currently a supervisor in the Operations Department. She is a native of White Plains, N.C., and a graduate of Draughton Business College.

Mrs. Wall joined the bank in 1975 as a computer programmer in systems development and is currently a computer senior analyst. A native of Charleston, S.C., she earned a bachelor's degree from Furman University in Greenville, S.C.

JOHN R. CONNOR of Lawnside, NJ graduated from Widener college in Chester, Pa., capturing the school's "Most prestigious student" award. The award is given to the student at Widener who has rendered the greatest service to the school scholastically, athletically and socially.

While at Widener, Connor was on the dean's list all four years. He also made Who's Who in Colleges, and he was co-captain of the college's NCAA Division III national championship football team.

Connor graduated with a degree in accounting and business management and is now employed at Arthur Young and Company, a Philadelphia accounting firm.

NAOMI C. MCLEAN, Owner, Operator of McLean's Stenographic and Tutoring Service, located in the Bruce Bldg., has been issued a Certificate of Registration which is signed by the Supervisor Administrative and recorded on the permanent roster of Record Keeping Service System, Chicago, Illinois, certifying that she has been furnished with instruction and information as is normally required, qualifying her to provide and maintain record-keeping services for the preparation and submission of specified business reports and schedules.

She has also received an invitation from the International Biographical Centre, Cambridge, England; Director General, Ernest Kay to attend the 6th IBC International Congress on Arts and Communications at Hyatt Regency Hotel, Cambridge, Mass., July 9-15, 1979.

JANE LEE BURR of Belevs Creek, North Carolina, was selected as WXII's Christmas Queen. Ms. Burr was crowned Thursday, November 16, on the "Today At Home" show, a WXII public affairs program.

As the Christmas Queen, Ms. Burr will represent the station by riding on the WXII float in the Winston-Salem and High Point Christmas parades on Thanksgiving Day, and by participating in the Red Cross Blood Drive, sponsored jointly by WXII, WSJS, and the M.C. Benton Convention Center.

A 1976 graduate of East Forsyth High School, Ms. Burr was selected in recognition of her contribution to the community. Confined to a wheelchair, Ms. Burr helped organize and is currently President of the Forsyth Handicapped Jaycettes, which was chartered in May of this year.

CURTIS MOORE and BYRON MURRAIN were commissioned second lieutenant in the United States Army in a ceremony held in M. M. Hauser Student Union on the campus of Winston-Salem State University. Major Floyd Griffin, R. O. T. C. Co-ordinator at WSSU, read the official orders in the crowded ballroom. Colonel Walters, United States Army, read the significance of the awards while Mr. John Moore, the honorees father, and Sharon McClary, WSSU student, pinned the second lieutenant bars on the honorees.

Willie Jordan and Nate Perkins, members of Military Science IV presented silver dollars to the two men.

ST. ANDREWS QUEEN AND PRINCESS CROWNED
Mrs. Wyvonia Cunningham (right) was crowned "Miss St. Andrews". Mrs. Beverly Harris (left) was crowned "Miss Princess".

Of the new director, Womble commented: "He has the experience, the dedication, the tools, and the resources to do the job. I'm just hoping the different departments and agencies will co-operate with him." "The Human Relations Commission has been in its infancy," Womble continued. "But we're out of the crawling stage now, and we're beginning to walk."
