Indians Win Danville Tourney

Winston Salem Indian hurler John Baldwin set two new Danville Invitational Tourney records this past week as he pitched the Indians to the title of the event held in Danville, Va. Baldwin was the winning pitcher in each of the four games the Indians won in claiming the title as he pitched a complete game in each start and set records for the number of strikeouts in a game and in the tourney.

In the teams opening game win over South Boston, Baldwin collected 22 strikeouts and gave up only two hits in the 11-12 win.

homer and collected five runs batted in the game. The 22 strikeouts eclipsed the old record set by Smith's Garage's Wayne Gouch by three.

Ron Fowler had three hits including a grand slam Otis Foster also contributed a two run blast. Baldwin came back three nights later to record 20 KO's in an 11-5 win over Smith's Garage. He allowed only three hits but gave up eight walks and three of the five runs were walked in. Otis Foster had another two run homer in this game and Fowler collected three hits.

Baldwin responded in the next Indians contest by blanking the host Danville

Dolphins 6-0 on a six hitter striking out 18. Foster delivered his customary two run homer in the game and catcher Gary Matherly drove in the other three runs with a double and a single.

The Indians faced the winner of the Losers racket, Frank's Trophy, on last Saturday needing only a win to take the title. But Frank's Trophy routed Indian starter, Gary Groce, and two relievers for 14 runs in a 14-7 win.

With a game Sunday set to decide the title Indian manager, Rip Wilkins went back to the well and gave Baldwin the ball. This time he tossed a five hitter striking out nine in the 6-1 title clinching win. The losers got their only run in the third on two singles and a walk to take a 1-0 lead. The Indians came right back to decide the game in the bottom half of the inning. With one out Gary Groce, playing in the outfield, singled, Baldwin walked as did Curt Neal to load the bases. Rod Johnson singled in one run and Gary Matherly followed with a bases loaded round tripper.

Baldwin closed out the scoring in the eighth when he hit a solo homer. Baldwin's mound stats for the tourney earned him the Best Pitcher award. For his four starts he pitched 36

City Invitational Starts This Week

By Robert Eller

After a year's absence the Winston Salem Invitational semi pro baseball tourney will resume in the city this Saturday. After five straight years the tourney was not held last year, but Winston Salem Indian manager, Rip Wilkins, the events director, says that a great deal of interest from a number of teams has resurrected the event.

"Right now we have ten teams that will definitely be in it. The state champion Stokesdale A's are the favorites, but we (the Indians) hope we can take the title. Other local teams registered to play include the Winston Salem Phillies, and Lions as well as the

Here-to-fore all the growth around Winston Lake has been trimmed and cut during the early spring. Next spring we will have a three season's growth to contend with. The last time the lake was neglected growth reached more than eight feet. If this continues Winston Lake will be nothing more than a wilderness. Like most of the recreational facilities of East Winston, the Lake is not maintained.

I called the office that is responsible for maintenance of recreation facilities and I was told that the youth groups would clean up the shorelines of the lake. It was near three years before a bridge was reconstructed and the bridge that connects the west banks of the lake has never been replaced.

Now we are being told that something will be done about Winston Lake in five years. What will it look like in five years if it is neglected further. Of course, with funds being cut the small print is saying, "If there is enough money available." Did you ever tour the city and look at the other parks?

We continue to lose facilities, hospitals, Memorial Industrial Home, although the Memorial Industrial facilities are now being used for a very good cause and swimming pool sites. All because of complacency. Well, what the heck, we still have plenty of black institutions, churches, funeral homes, night clubs, a couple of grocery stores, one drug store and two or three cafes...We don't need hardware, department stores or anything of that sort; we consider that white domain. Sorry to get away from the fishing bit, I just got carried away. Don't forget the weather is getting just right and I hope to see some action soon that will keep my mind specifically on the topic.

unofficial all-time leading rusher and the first Alcorn player to be drafted by a professional football team. Even opponent coaches marvel at his talents.

"Greg is a very outstanding running back who combines speed, strength and good peripheral vision to amass much yardage against opponents," W.C. Gorden, the Jackson State head coach remarked. "He's a good pass receiver too."

Jones' college honors are continually stockpiling. In addition to his national and SWAC rankings, last year he was a first-team All-SWAC selectee, a Sheridan Broadcasting Network All-American, an Associated Press Little All-American and an NAIA All-District honoree. Furthermore, he set an ASU single-game rushing record in 1980 when he garnered 229 net yards against Prairie View, breaking the old Leroy Hardy mark of 226 set in 1966. He gained 206 yards against Albany State last year too.
