week. Applications are being accepted from boys and girls ages 9 to 18. Practice won't interfere with city-county school programs, and athletes should bring a parent with them when they come to register. The first TAC meet will be May 19, and runners must take part in the first meet in order to advance to following meets.

"Lynch him!"

On a hot summer night in 1930, 16-year-old James Cameron faced a white lynch mob.

He felt the rope tighten around his neck.

Yet miraculously, this young black escaped. While two others died.

Watch "How I Escaped Lynching." On Tony Brown's Journal on PBS. And see, in a TV first, how James Cameron slipped the noose.
