This and That

ORLANDO, Fla. -- Other black college tidbits: Howard University wrestling Coach Paul Cotton saw his dream of making the Olympic team end when sustained a shoulder separation while wrestling in the trials... Alabama State track star Dannette Young advanced to the semifinals of the trials...

Albany (Ga.) State tried to talk Florida A&M into a home-and-home football schedule, but no deal was reached. FAMU, working on its 1985 football schedule, has made another offer to play arch-rival Bethune-Cookman College.

The Rattlers want to renew the once-heated series, and are willing to play anywhere but Tampa, Fla.

National Youth Sports Day set for July 7

Due to the fourth of July holiday, the National Youth Sports Program, which resumes operation today, will make up for July 4 on Saturday, July 7.

All parents of NYSP participants are urged to come and watch the action.

In addition to the regular program on Saturday, the Winston-Salem Pond Giants will be sponsoring some events at Ernie Shore

Field. Beginning at 7:30 p.m., there will be a baseball game featuring the Pond Giants against the Granite Falls All-Stars. There will be no charge for NYSP participants.

Admission will be charged for parents and non-participants.

Formaldehyde insulation reduces home value

Urea-formaldehyde insulation reduces a home's value by an average of 14 percent, according to a survey of real estate appraisers. The insulation works, but it can give off fumes which make some people feel ill.
