

Church Notes

Dr. Braxton to preach again

Dr. W. Braxton Cooley Sr., the second candidate invited for a return preaching engagement, will preach at First Baptist Church on Sunday, July 8.

Cooley, of Pennsylvania, is married to the former Miss Iris O. Hairston of Walnut Cove, and they are the parents of William, 22, and Anjilla, 17.

Cooley holds a doctor of ministry degree in theology and psychology and master of divinity degree from Drew University in New Jersey, a master of science degree in library science and educational administration from North Carolina Central University and a bachelor of arts degree in social studies and religion from Shaw University.

His pastoral and ministerial experience include teaching chaplain for the State Correctional Institution at Camp Hill, Pa., where he taught clinical pastoral education and trained prison chaplains from 1974-78.

From 1978 to the present, Cooley has been the institutional chaplaincy program director for the Harrisburg State Hospital in Harrisburg, Penn., and since 1980, he has been pastor of The First Baptist Church of Steelton in Harrisburg.

He has pastored churches in North Carolina, Ohio and New Jersey.

Salty Dogs host concert for Unitarians

The Salty Dogs, a Dixieland Jazz Band from Raleigh, will play here Sunday, July 8, in its 12th annual benefit concert for the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship.

The concert is co-sponsored by WTOB radio station.

The group, led by Dr. John

Ely, will play from 2-5 p.m. at Benton Convention Center. Tickets are being sold by fellowship members and will be available at the door.

St. Benedict involves youth

"We can't make kids 13 or 14 act like they're 42," Tupponce says, "but we can give them needed guidance."

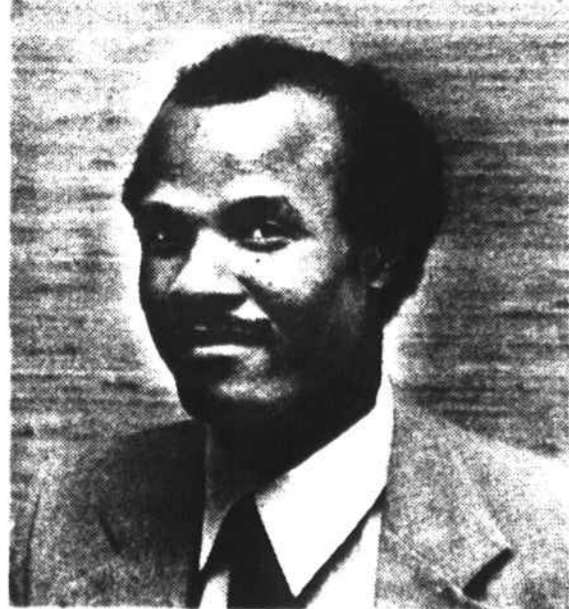

An education of black youth in the Catholic Church and their contributions to it are an important part of the black youth's sense of accomplishment, says Tupponce.

"I don't know," she says. "This is a shot. All you can do is let them know you care and that you know what it's like to be 13 or 14 and I think they're understanding that now."

"I can understand the kids when they say 'yuck' to the saying, I was the only black Catholic in my parish."

And it's not true that blacks just joined the Catholic Church, because they didn't. Of the most noted theologians of all Christendom was St. Augustine, who was a black man."
