

Church choirs honor music teacher

The Adult and Junior Choirs of First Baptist Church recently honored Mrs. Curtiss T. Joshua with an appreciation service for her 22 years of dedicated church service at a 4 p.m. celebration Sunday, July 8.

The late Mrs. Mamie Wilson, who directed the junior choir for more than 22 years, was also honored.

Mrs. Joshua, who taught music in the public school system here and in her home, served as church pianist and organist for First Calvary. She is a native of Florence, S.C., and received her bachelor's degree in music education from Winston-Salem Teachers College (now Winston-Salem State University) and received her master's degree from North Carolina A&T State University.

Joining choir members in the celebration were Mrs. Joshua's sister, Mrs. Lila T. Davis. Other guests were Mrs. Hattie Jeter, Mrs. Madie Caldwell, Mrs. Dollean Johnson and Ms. Hythia Evans.

The Rev. W.L. Wilson, pastor of First Calvary, commended the long-time church worker for her dedication to the church youth.

During the service, Mrs. Joshua was presented with an appreciation plaque, a money tree, a crystal bowl of candy and note cards in the form of a keyboard symbolizing her love for music and many other gifts.

Who do you miss who's 50 miles away?

Isn't that someone special who seems too close to call and too far to visit, really worth a surprise chat now and then? Well, remember with Southern Bell, 50 miles is only a short long distance call away.

In North Carolina, a 15-minute call this weekend within 50 miles, dialed direct without the operator, costs no more than $2.34 till 5 p.m. Sunday.

At that rate, you can visit long and warm. And often.

Make a short long distance call today.

Dial Station (1 +) charges apply. These charges do not apply to person-to-person, coin, hotel-guest, calling card, collect calls, calls charged to another number, or to time and charge calls. For direct dial rates to Alaska and Hawaii, check your operator. Rates subject to change.
