

Penny Lynette Hill, right, was awarded a $400 scholarship by the American Bridge Association. Frances Coble, left, chairman of the local scholarship committee and Dr. Rosetta Hauser, president of the Winston-Salem Kings and Queens Bridge Association, present Hill with the award (photo by James Parker).

Penny Hill awarded bridge scholarship

Penny Lynette Hill, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie E. Hill, of 2700 Fondly Road, was recently awarded a scholarship by the American Bridge Association. Dr. Rosetta Hauser is the president of the Kings and Queens Bridge Club and Mrs. Frances Coble served as chairman of the scholarship committee which selected Miss Hill as a candidate.

A rising junior at Bennett College in Greensboro, Miss Hill will receive a $400 scholarship award.

She is majoring in English at Bennett, where she is a member of the scholars program and the Bennett College WITS. In her spare time, Hill says she enjoys reading black literature, collecting recipes and watching basketball.

Hart, Jones wed at evening ceremony

Jimmie D. Hart and Timothy Jones were married Saturday, July 21 at 1 p.m. at Galilee Baptist Church, with Dr. Warnie C. Hay officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hart of Pitts Street, is a graduate of Parkland High School and Winston-Salem State University. She is employed by Piedmont Airlines.

The groom is the son of Ms. Aurelia Jones of Winston-Salem. He is also a graduate of Parkland and is employed by Capitol Drywall and Painting in Annandale, Va.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride had her niece Kim McKenzie of Reston, Va. as her maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Veronica Hunt of Charlotte, Andrea Brown, Gloria Forbes, Latonia Jones, Tangela Withers and LaRhonda Hart, all of Winston-Salem.

The groom's best man was Sterlin Carter of Norfolk, Va.

Ushers were Carlos Hicks, Anderson Hicks and Ricky Hampton, all of Winston-Salem. Also, Darrell Jessup of Greensboro and Irvin Greene of

Jimmie Hart Jones

Reston, Va.

The couple will make their home in Herndon, Va.

Charles M. Winchester Jr., second from left, was the first place winner in a raffle sponsored recently by the North Carolina Black Repertory Company Theatre Guild. Mrs. Essie Brayboy, center, was the second place winner of a black and white TV and Leroy Wagner, second from right, was the third place winner of a polaroid camera. Also pictured is Mary Johnson, Guild president, and Larry Leon Hamlin, director-producer of the North Carolina Black Repertory Company (photo by James Parker).

City seeks volunteers and nominations

Mayor Wayne Corpening and members of the Winston-Salem Board of Aldermen announced that they are seeking volunteers or nominations of people to fill positions on the newly-created Winston-Salem Civic Ventures Advisory Board.

This board will be concerned with assisting and advising the board of aldermen and the Forsyth County board of commissioners on central area revitalization and countywide economic development.

The board has 20 members and eight ex-officio members. Of the 20 members, six are appointed by the mayor, six by the board of aldermen and eight by the commissioners' chairman or the full board of county commissioners. Positions currently available are to be filled by the 12 Winston-Salem appointments, six by the mayor and six by the board of Aldermen.

Appointments to this board will reflect the representation of top leadership from the business sectors, industry, private foundations, arts organizations, institutions of higher education and civic and religious institutions.

Meetings will be held at least quarterly and other meetings and subcommittee meetings may be held from time to time. Appointments will be for one-, two- and three-year terms.

People who wish to make nominations or volunteer should do so in writing to the mayor's office or the city secretary's office at P.O. Box 2511 Winston-Salem, N.C. 27102. Each nomination should include qualifications that are appropriate for serving on the board.

All nominations are due by July 31.

Thalhimers

SPORT YOUR SCHOOL LETTERS: OP®

7.99

Ocean Pacific® Long-sleeved T-shirts, screen-printed in the clean-cut, California style. This fall, be on the winning team—make Op® your school letters! Polyester/cotton in a variety of colors. Boys sizes S-M-L-XL. Childrensworld.

Congratulations

We would like to Congratulate the Winston-Salem Chronicle on winning the John Russwurm Merit Award presented by the National Newspaper Publishers Association.

This says that you are the best in the nation.

We are proud of your accomplishments and your new building.

We wish you much continued success in the future.

