Mrs. Richmond named Saleswoman of the Year

Mrs. Lena Richmond was recognized as Sales Woman of the Year for Piedmont Memorial Gardens last weekend at the company's annual stockholder's meeting.

Mrs. Richmond was presented the award by Gordon L. Greene, chairman of the board for Piedmont Memorial Gardens. It was given to Mrs. Richmond for her accomplishments in sales and also for her devotion and service to the communities of Winston-Salem.

Joyce A. Crosson-Mouzon has been elected president of the Student Government Association (SGA) of Rutledge Business College. She is a native of Baltimore, Md. She moved to Winston-Salem in June, 1983, and was elected president of the SGA on Oct. 25 of this year. She will graduate from Rutledge Business College in June 1985.

Mrs. Mouzon is a full-time student, wife and mother. She has one daughter, Denise Danielle.

She is a member of the Golden Key Club and the Pep Team at Rutledge. Her major is Professional Secretary and her long-term goal is to be secretary to the president of R.J. Reynolds.

Ronald D. Troy has been elected trust officer at Wachovia Bank and Trust in Winston-Salem.

Troy joined Wachovia in 1982. He is supervisor of administrative control/compliance in the Employee Benefits Department. He is a cum laude graduate of N.C. A&T State University.

Troy is a native of Lumberton. He and his wife, Paulette, have one son and make their home in Clemmons.

Timothy Jackson Jr., head of the East Winston Branch Library, has been selected to serve on the 1984-85 Program Resource and Advisory Committee for the Career Center of the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System.

Jackson has also been appointed to the Family Resource Management and Human Development Specialized Committee for the Agricultural Extension Service of Forsyth County.

Jackson, 35, is a native of Birmingham, Ala., and a graduate of Alabama A&M University.

Summer youth program places 429 in local jobs

From June 18 through Aug. 10 of this year, the Summer Youth Employment Program placed 429 youth in summer jobs in seven different agencies. Fifteen of these assignments resulted in permanent jobs.

From each of the seven agencies, Integon selected one participant to receive a certificate of recognition on the basis of punctuality, attendance, initiative, general attitude and proficiency. Those seven chosen to receive the certificates were honored at the Private Industry Council meeting on Wed. Oct. 31.

After presenting a certificate of recognition and a $50 savings bond, Bill Temples of Integon, congratulated each youth individually. Those recognized were Michelle Booker, Darryl Jeffreys, Timothy Jewett, Willie Robinson, Kenneth Moses, Barbara Brandys and Mona Gary.

Also present at the meeting were Mayor Wayne Corpening and Assistant City Manager Al Beaty.

Mrs. Eponia Workman

81st birthday celebrated

Mrs. Euphonia Workman celebrated her 81st birthday on Oct. 1. She was the special guest at a party given by her son and daughter-in-law, Richard and Mildred Workman. The party was given in Waughtown Baptist Church at 838 Moravia St., where Mrs. Workman has attended for 60 or more years.

Mrs. Workman celebrated her birthday with her friends, family and church and choir members.

34 attend holiday dance

The staff of Kimberly Park Child Care Center entertained parents and friends at their annual Halloween Program on Wednesday, Oct. 31, at 10:30 a.m. at 1348 Oak Street.

The director, Mrs. Videll Barber, and staff wore original costumes as angels, pirates, witches with brightly colored hair and sassy dresses, a female vampire, a Roman goddess, gypsy and hobo. Each classroom participated in a special way. The children highlighted the show with the "Ghost Buster" dance.

One could feel excitement by entering the building, there were colorful decorations, laughter, tears and fears, and warm friendly faces.

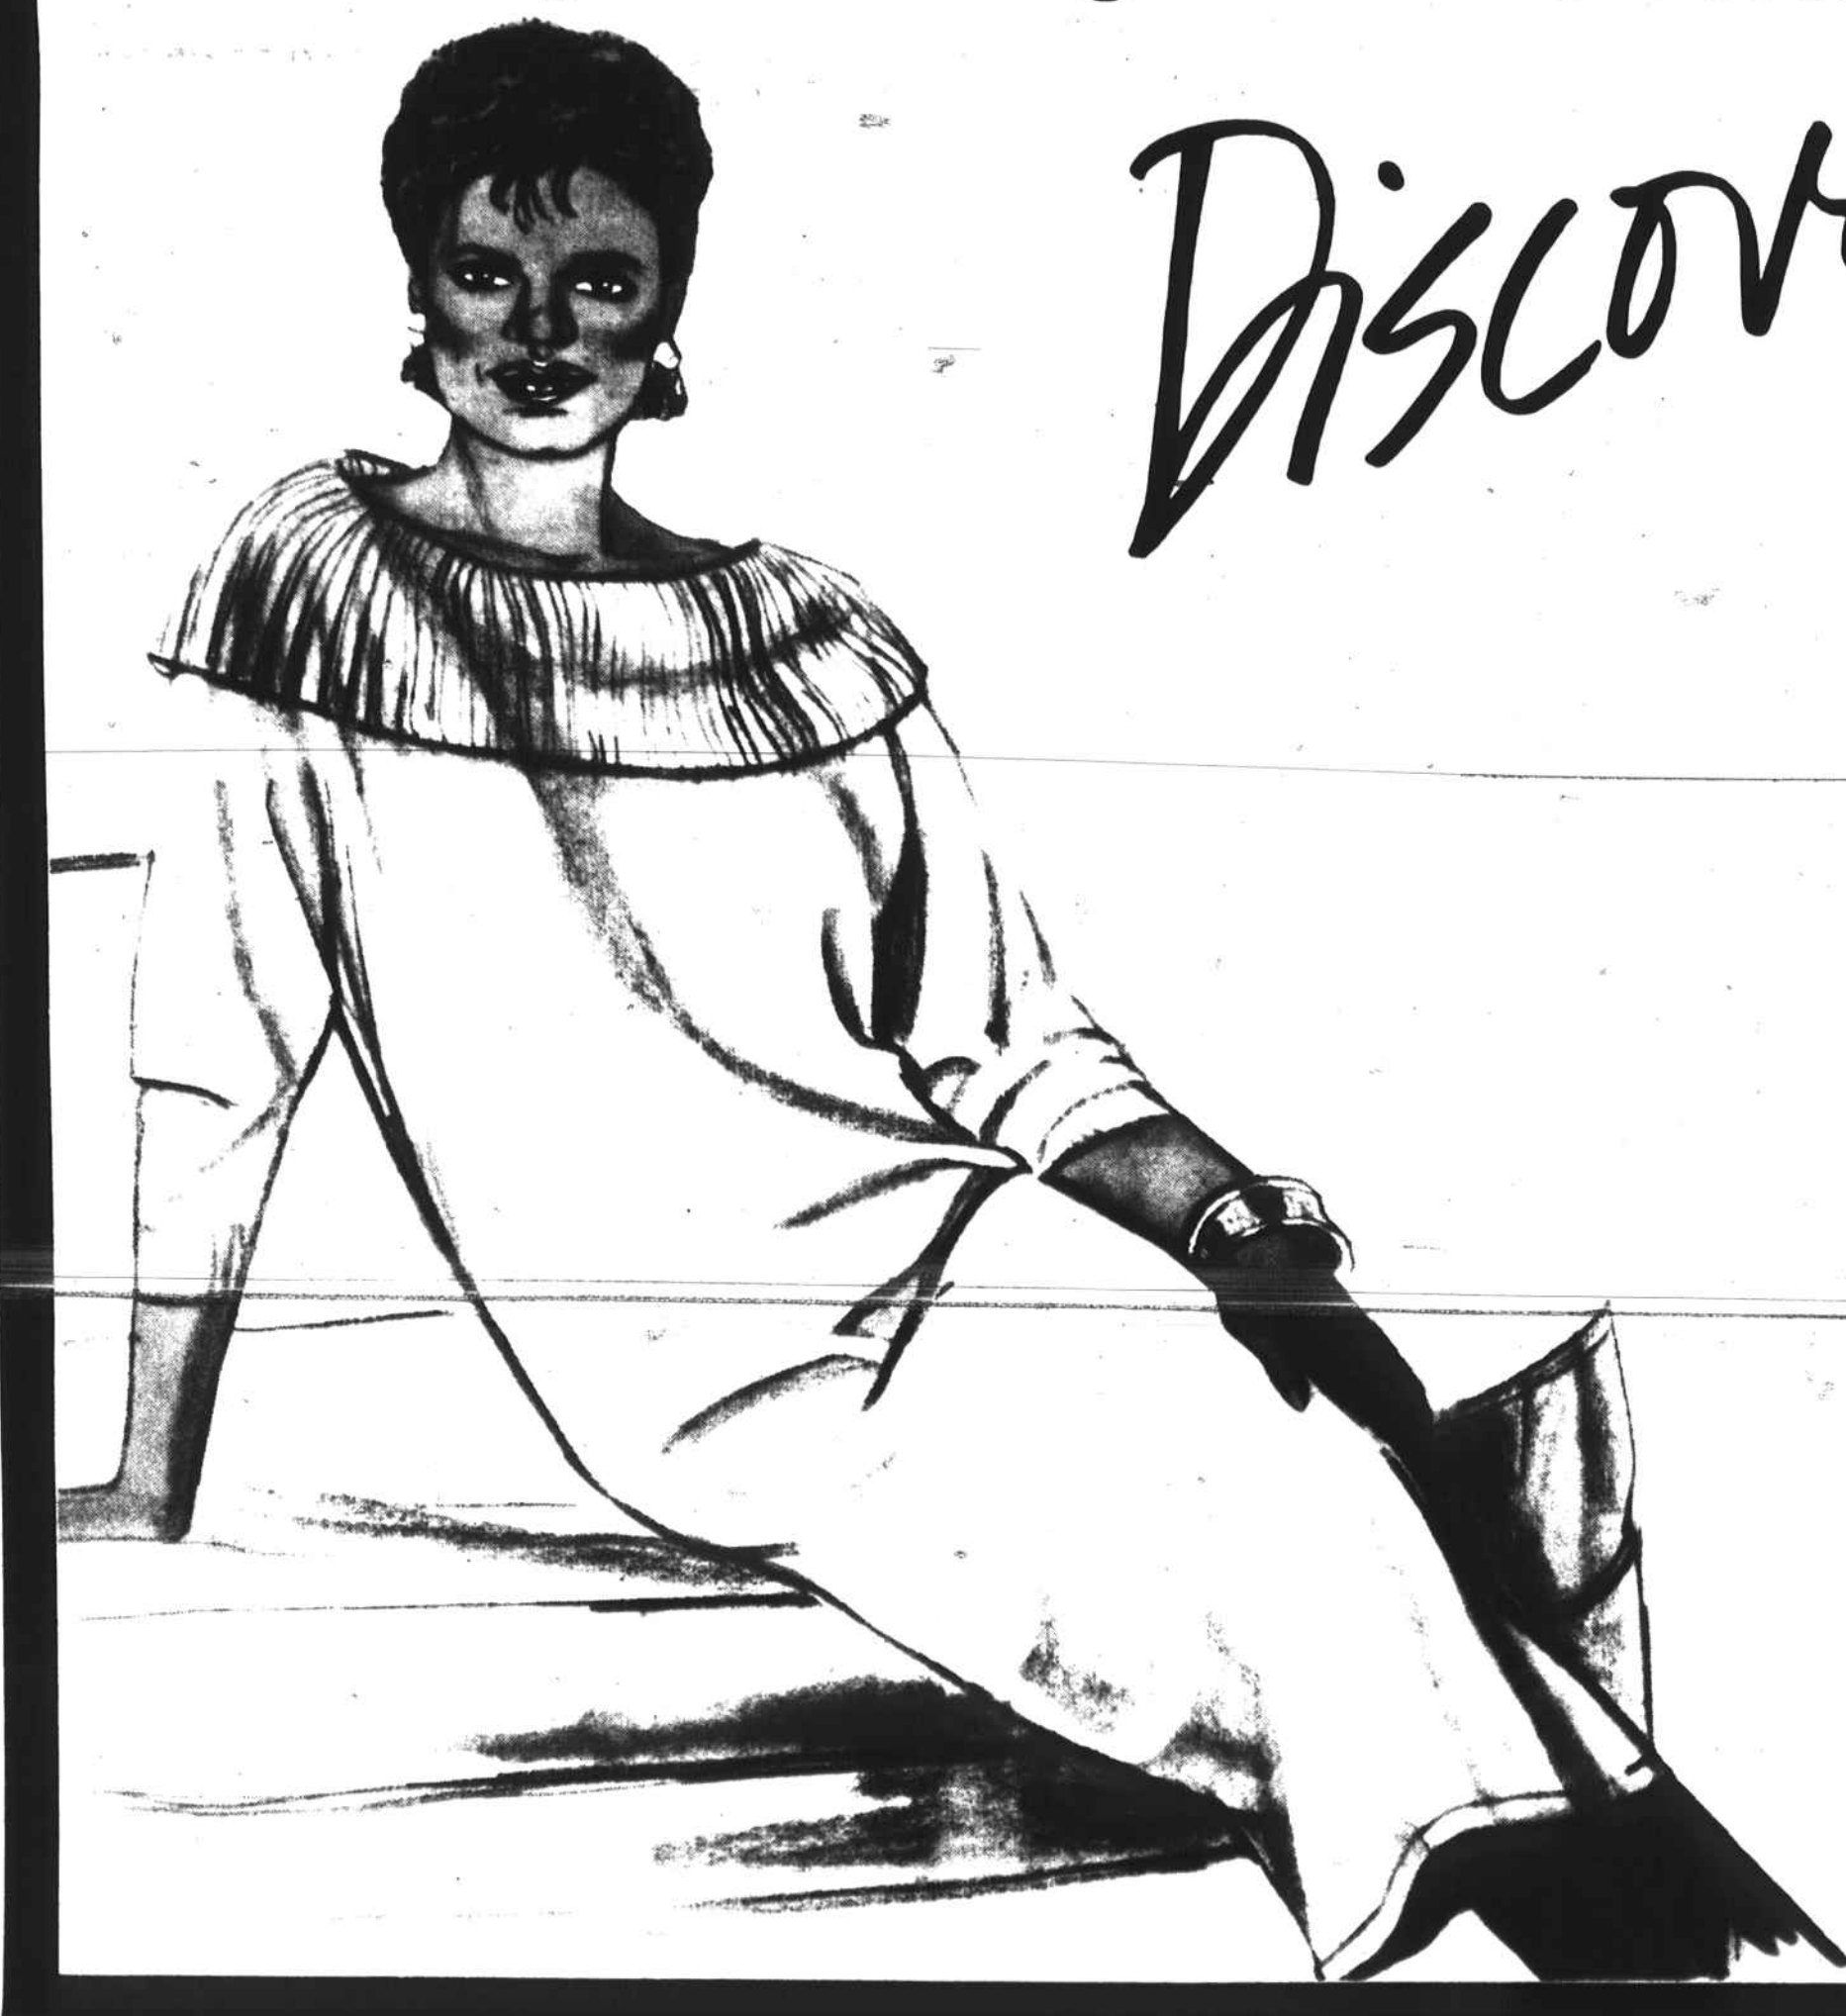

There was a lucky ghost buster drawing and a guest speaker, Mrs. Josie Williams. Her topic was "The teacher, the director and the parent."

There were 34 guests present. A special treat at the end of the program was a witch's brew and devil's delight.
