

THE WEEK

The CIAA

Standings

Northern Division	Games	W	L
Elizabeth City	1-0	1	0
Norfolk State	1-0	1	0
Virginia Union	0-0	0	0
Hampton Institute	2-1	2	1
Virginia State	1-1	1	1
St. Paul's	0-2	0	2
Bowie State	0-1	0	1

Southern Division	Games	W	L
North Carolina Central	1-0	1	0
Winston-Salem State	1-0	1	0
Shaw University	0-0	0	0
St. Augustine's	0-0	0	0
Fayetteville State	0-0	0	0
Johnson C. Smith	0-2	0	2
Livingstone	0-2	0	2

The MEAC

Standings

Division	Games	W	L
Delaware State	0-0	0	0
North Carolina A&T	0-0	0	0
Howard University	0-0	0	0
Maryland-Eastern Shore	0-0	0	0
Bethune-Cookman	0-0	0	0
Morgan State	0-0	0	0
South Carolina State	0-0	0	0

Scores

CIAA
 North Carolina Central 77, Bowie State 73
 Winston-Salem State 76, Hampton Institute 74, overtime
 St. Augustine's 94, St. Paul's 67
 Johnson C. Smith 102, Paine 96
 Virginia Union 73, C.W. Post 60
 Norfolk State 87, Shaw 73
 Virginia State 75, Longwood 63
Atlantic Christian 52, Fayetteville State 31
 St. Paul's 100, Newport News Apprentice 94
 Johnson C. Smith 99, Barber-Scott 79
 Wingate 78, Livingstone 77
 Virginia Union 76, Point Park 53
 Hampton 71, Shaw 58
 North Carolina Central 84, Seymour Johnson 53
 St. Augustine's 88, Fayetteville State 75
 Lenoir Rhyne 74, Johnson C. Smith 55
 Virginia Union 60, Randolph Macon 54
 St. Paul's 66, Coppin State 63
 Shaw 71, Virginia State 49
 North Carolina A&T 67, Winston-Salem State 39
 St. Augustine's 83, North Carolina Central 79
 Fayetteville State 112, Seymour Johnson 73
 Elizabeth City 96, Johnson C. Smith 92

MEAC
 South Florida 93, Bethune-Cookman 50
 Palmetta AAU 57, North Carolina A&T 55
 Salisbury State 81, Maryland-Eastern Shore 69
 South Alabama 77, Morgan 57
 Delaware State 85, Coppin State 75, overtime
 Coppin State 61, Howard 60
 Radford 90, Maryland-Eastern Shore 57
 Baptist 67, Bethune-Cookman 52
 Northern Iowa 64, South Carolina State 61, overtime
 North Carolina A&T 67, Winston-Salem State 39
 Radford 84, Bethune-Cookman 60
 Baptist 75, Maryland-Eastern Shore 94
 Alabama State 90, South Carolina State 62
 San Diego State 128, Morgan State 68

This Week's Games

Virginia State vs. Winston-Salem State, North-South double-header
 St. Augustine's vs. Virginia Union, North-South double-header
 Johnson C. Smith at Bowie State
 Elizabeth City at Shaw
 St. Paul's at Fayetteville State
 St. Augustine's at Hampton
 Norfolk State at North Carolina Central
 Elizabeth City State in Liberty Baptist Tournament
 Hampton at Fayetteville State
 Johnson C. Smith at Shaw
 St. Paul's at Livingstone
 Winston-Salem State vs. Virginia Union, South double-header

Hope to rebound this weekend

Ragged second half costs Rams in 67-39 loss

By SAM DAVIS
Chronicle Sports Editor

Winston-Salem State Coach "Bighouse" Gaines is still trying to figure out the 39th edition of his Ram basketball team after an up-and-down week.

The young Rams looked to be responding well to Gaines' teaching early last week, dropping talent-laden Hampton Institute 76-74 in overtime last Tuesday night in the Pirates' gym. However, the Rams played raggedly Saturday night, committing countless turnovers in a 69-37 loss to arch-rival North Carolina A&T.

"We're not as bad a ball club as we showed Saturday night. It's still too early to say what kind of team we're going to have."

-- "Bighouse" Gaines

The loss came as a real shock for Gaines, who had thought his team was beginning to come around.

"I thought they were really up for the game," Gaines said. "Our practices last week were as spirited as they had been all season. I just don't know what happened."

Most disappointing to Gaines was the Rams' performance in the second half, when they appeared to come apart at the seams.

"We made mistakes that you have to pay for," said Gaines. "We didn't take many shots and that's something I can't explain."

Rebounding also hurt us. I've never seen one of our groups play like that. The only player that had a reasonable game was (Kevin "Cadillac") Vaughn.

"Maybe they were a little too keyed-up for the game," Gaines said of his players. "Once you lose your composure in a game like that, you're finished."

Even though the Rams were beaten in almost every aspect of the game against A&T, Gaines said he still believes the team will come on toward the middle of the season.

"I think we'll be much better," he said. "We have to regroup. I told them that it's time to start all over again and try to put the game behind them."

Looking back at a more memorable game against Hampton, in which the Rams faced a very tall front line, Gaines said his team showed it has the ability to play sound basketball.

"The win over Hampton was one of the most gratifying we've had in a while," he said. "We hadn't won in Hampton for the past few years and I thought our guys played a good game."

"It was a good team win," Gaines said. "We played a much taller team and our guys responded well. We had good balance and good defense. The kids coming off the bench also played well."

But, rather than dwell on the team's past performances, good or bad, Gaines said, he's more worried about what's ahead.

"There's no need to worry about what's already happened," Gaines said. "Please see page B2"

Winston-Salem State freshman guard Charlie Spell goes to the hoop in the Rams' 67-39 loss to A&T last Saturday. Spell and WSSU hope to rebound from the loss when they take on Virginia State and Virginia Union this weekend (photo by James Parker).

Holiday selected as Chronicle's Prep Player of the Year

By SAM DAVIS
Chronicle Sports Editor

Jacques "Hit Man" Holiday is what is called an intimidator. He, in other words, enjoys pounding opposing football players into submission and, most of all, sacking quarterbacks.

At 6 feet, 3 inches, 230 pounds, Holiday was the anchor of the Parkland High football team this past season. He also was one big reason the Mustangs finished the season with a 8-3 record.

However, off the field, the oversized teen-ager is

"I love to intimidate people on the football field .... I like sacking quarterbacks and seeing the fear in their eyes."

-- Jacques Holiday

one of the nicest people you'd ever want to meet. He describes himself as "nice, understanding and well-mannered." But, give him a pair of shoulder pads and a helmet and Jacques will try to "knock your head off."

"I love to intimidate people on the football field," says the soft-spoken senior with a sheepish grin on his face. "I like sacking quarterbacks and seeing the fear in their eyes."

During a season in which the Mustangs finished 8-3, Holiday was the top running back in the county. Please see page B2

Parkland's Jacques Holiday: "I like to intimidate people on the football field" (photo by James Parker).

Jackson, Hatchett head Chronicle All-City offensive team

By SAM DAVIS
Chronicle Sports Editor

Parkland's Donald Jackson and Deddrick Hatchett of North Forsyth head the senior-dominated Winston-Salem Chronicle 1984 All-City/County Football Team. Jackson, a 5-10, 185-pound tailback, helped carry his team to the state 4-A playoffs and Hatchett, a quarterback, helped his team to the 4-A Division II playoffs.

Jackson, who was an all-conference selection as a junior, did not have the statistical year he had a year ago, but nevertheless was the top running back in the county.

Parkland, which finished the season 8-3 and won each of its four games against county teams, placed three other players on the team. Mustang receiver Shelton Jones, who also started at defensive back, Please see page B4

Donald Jackson

Deddrick Hatchett

Geno Segers