LOUIS FARRAKHAN: WHAT'S HE UP TO NOW?

"I don't think that Jesse Jackson can look forward to my support four years from now." —Louis Farrakhan Minister Louis Farrakhan, the outspoken leader of the Nation of Islam, talks candidly with Tony Brown in an exclusive two-part special, "The Views and Solutions of Louis Farrakhan."

Part I covers Farrakhan's association with The Rev. Jesse Jackson, his controversial charges that Black politicians are "puppets," his break with Malcolm X, and his response to charges of anti-Semitism.

In Part II Brown examines Farrakhan's new economic program—"P.O.W.E.R.," his religious beliefs, and his response to Mayor Andrew Young's labeling him a "demagogue."

Tony Brown covers it all as only he can. You won't want to miss it.
