

Watson recently selected to attend Boys' State

Carlus B. Watson, a junior at East Forsyth High School, has been selected for the 1985 session of the North Carolina American Legion Tar Heel Boys' State, which will be held at Wake Forest University.

North Carolina Boys' State is a six-day, intensive workshop in state government and politics.

Watson will participate in a variety of activities that are designed to improve the participants' awareness and understanding of the organization and operations of government and politics, as well as public policies that are being debated currently in North Carolina.

He is the son of Henry and Magdalene Watson and a member of Emmanuel Baptist Church.

At East Forsyth, he is a member of the National Honor Society and the football team. He is also a member of the Carver recreational basketball team and the Weightlifting Club....

Sylvia Ann Bullard, was awarded the Winston-Salem and Twin City Kiwanis Club Scholarship at Forsyth Technical College.

Bullard is a 1985 graduate of East Forsyth High School and the daughter of Bernice Bullard.

Sylvia A. Bullard

At East Forsyth, Bullard received certificates for her outstanding achievements in English and for having a perfect attendance record this school year.

She was also honored as the Kiwanis' administrative management society's business Student of the Year for 1985.

Lowell T. Murchison, a 10th-grade trumpet player at Carver High School, was named Band Student of the Year.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Lowell Murchison

William H. Murchison of Winston-Salem.

Lowell holds such honors as Band Student of the Month for August, 1984, All-County Band, United States Achievement Academy and High School Band Hall of Fame.

Kelia C. Gray, a ninth-grade clarinet player at Carver High School, was named Band Student of the Month in May.

Kelia Gray

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Gray of Winston-Salem.

Gray has been playing the clarinet for four years. She also plays the piano.

At Carver, she is active in the marching, pep and concert bands. She participated in the recent All-County Band concert, playing the bass clarinet.

GREAT GIFT FOR DADS! LAWN-BOY

BEST VALUE TRIMMER/EDGER
Model 1400

- Powerful, dependable 31cc gasoline engine with electronic ignition
- Fingertip throttle control
- Easy fingertip starting
- Lightweight and balanced for operating ease
- "Bump Head" line feed and automatic line cutter
- Comfort-fit hand grip
- Easily adjustable handle
- Two-piece boom swivels trimming head for edging or trimming
- Weighs only 10.5 lbs.

$139⁹⁵

FREE 1 Gal Gas Can & 6 Pk. of Oil W/Purchase

PINE NEEDLES NOW IN STOCK

Wachovia-Southern Oil Co.
Downtown Office (Formerly Southern Coal & Oil Co.)
532 Northwest Blvd., NW 722-6191

SEE US FOR GRASS SEED & FERTILIZER

Service will paint addresses

The Neighborhood Address Service, a division of Off Campus Sportswear, recently hired 50 people to paint curb addresses in Winston-Salem neighborhoods.

This service was created to eliminate the problem of ambulance drivers and firemen not being able to find houses in emergencies.

Garden club

From Page A6

place ribbons and two honorable mentions.

Katherine Walker is president of the Rake and Spade Garden Club.

Virginia Stewart of the Best Yet Flower and Garden Club won a blue ribbon for her flower arrangement in the "Return to Tradition" category. She also won four other ribbons, including a first-place with her portulaca entry.

Robert Jeffries, of the Prince's Feather Garden Club -- the only male club in the council -- won the Award of Distinction with his dried plant arrangement in the "Harvest Moon" category.

The male club won five first-place ribbons and two second-place ribbons.

William McKoy is president of the club.

Book club

From Page A6

Of special interest to the members were two pieces: "Emergency Care of Open Wounds" and "Emergency Care of Open Wounds That Cannot be Seen," taken from a new novel, "Sassafras, Cypress and Indigo," by Ntozke Shange.

Members attending the meeting were Mrs. Ruth Boone, Mrs. Bronnie Daniels, Mrs. Irma Gadsen, Mrs. Emmalene Goodwin, Mrs. Annie Hairston, Mrs. Aleise Jessup, Mrs. Wilma Lassiter, Mrs. Edna Revels and Mrs. Marian Wooten.

Military Notes

Hargrave reports for service

Marine Pfc. Cedric K. Hargrove, son of Mary H. Conner of 618 W. 14th St., recently reported for duty with the Third Force Service Support Group on Okinawa.

Hargrove, a 1983 graduate of R. J. Reynolds High School, joined the Marine Corps in July 1984.

Marine 2nd Lt. David A. Peacock, son of Lois and George Wilson Jr. of 4430 Old Lexington Road, has completed the ground supply officers course at Camp Lejeune.

During the 12-week course, Peacock learned the technical and leadership skills needed to manage a supply account in Fleet Marine Force and non-Fleet Marine Force units.

He also studied the support activities supply system procedures, which emphasize the duties of the individual unit supply officer.

Peacock graduated from Parkland Senior High School. He received his bachelor's degree in 1984 from The Citadel in Charleston, S.C. He joined the Marine Corps in May 1984.

NAVY.
IT'S NOT JUST A SNUFF,
IT'S AN ADVENTURE.

Helme Tobacco Company
a company of Curb Corporation

You've come a long way, baby.

VIRGINIA SLIMS

Menthol and Lights Menthol

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

Menthol: 14 mg "tar," 0.9 mg nicotine—Lights Menthol: 8 mg "tar," 0.6 mg nicotine av. per cigarette. FTC Report Feb '85