

NCNW holds state coalition meeting

The National Council of Negro Women State Coalition meeting was held Saturday, Sept. 21, at Shiloh Baptist Church. The theme of the meeting was "The Illusion of Unity into the Reality of Power-Family."

The meeting was held to hear reports from the Durham, Greensboro, Winston-Salem and Mt. Airy sections of the coalition.

Reports were given by Dr. Linda Hubbard of Durham, Mildred Hardy and Arlene Cooper of Greensboro, Mrs. Larn Dillard of Winston-Salem and Martha Joyce of Mt. Airy.

Martha Jones presided over the meeting.

Speakers were Commissioner Mazie Woodruff and Alderman Vivian Burke.

Mrs. Alvin Smith led the prayer; Patricia Stanley led the litany.

Music was furnished by Union Baptist Youth Choir under the direction of Delores Scales.

Members of the Steering Committee were: Martha G. Jones, chairman, Dr. Manderline Scales, Mary Thomas and Thelma Pickford.

Members of the Social Committee were: Viola Page, Ethel Crawford, Linda Jordan and Viola Stuckley.

several Broadway and off-Broadway plays, including "The Dutchman" and "The Amen Corner."

Fargas' film credits include "Shaft," "Cleopatra Jones" and "Car Wash."

Black Rep Night is an evening of appreciation for NCBRC guild members. Outstanding guild members will receive awards, as will businesses and individuals that have made substantial contributions to the repertory company.

The NCBRC Founder's Award, the highest award given by the group, will be presented by Larry Leon Hamlin, NCBRC founder.

Fargas will speak at Stouffer's

Winston Plaza Hotel. Admission is free, but reservations are required.

Correction

In the Sept. 19 "Close-Up" story on DeWanna Warren, Terrence Jefferson of Terrence Jefferson and Co. was incorrectly identified as Terrence Johnson. The Chronicle regrets the error.
